

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA CASE NO.

LOUIS VUITTON MALLETIER,

Plaintiff,

THE INDIVIDUALS, BUSINESS ENTITIES,
AND UNINCORPORATED ASSOCIATIONS
IDENTIFIED ON SCHEDULE “A,”

Defendants.

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Plaintiff, Louis Vuitton Malletier (“Plaintiff” or “Louis Vuitton”), hereby sues Defendants, the Individuals, Business Entities, and Unincorporated Associations identified on Schedule “A” hereto (collectively “Defendants”). Defendants are promoting, offering for sale, selling, and/or distributing goods bearing and/or using counterfeits and confusingly similar imitations of Louis Vuitton’s trademarks within this district through various Internet based e-commerce stores operating under the seller names set forth on Schedule “A” (the “E-commerce Store Names”). In support of its claims, Louis Vuitton alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This is an action for damages and injunctive relief for federal trademark counterfeiting and infringement, false designation of origin, cybersquatting, common law unfair competition, and common law trademark infringement pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114, 1116, 1125(a), and 1125(d), The All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a), and Florida’s common law. Accordingly, this Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1121 and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction pursuant to 28

U.S.C. § 1367 over Louis Vuitton's state law claims because those claims are so related to the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy.

2. Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this district, because they direct business activities toward and conduct business with consumers throughout the United States, including within the State of Florida and this district through at least, e-commerce stores¹ accessible and doing business in Florida and operating under their E-commerce Store Names. Alternatively, based on their overall contacts with the United States, Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this district pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(k)(2) because (i) Defendants are not subject to jurisdiction in any state's court of general jurisdiction; and (ii) exercising jurisdiction is consistent with the United States Constitution and laws.

3. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 since Defendants are, upon information and belief, non-residents in the United States and engaged in infringing activities and causing harm within this district by advertising, offering to sell, selling, and/or shipping infringing products into this district.

THE PLAINTIFF

4. Louis Vuitton is a foreign business entity organized under the laws of the Republic of France with its principal place of business located at 2, rue du Pont-Neuf in Paris, France 75034. Louis Vuitton operates boutiques throughout the world, including within this district. Louis Vuitton is, in part, engaged in the business of manufacturing and distributing throughout the world, including within this district, a variety of high-quality goods under multiple world-famous common law and federally registered trademarks, including those identified in Paragraph 15 below. Louis Vuitton offers for sale and sells its trademarked goods within the State of Florida, including this district, through its boutiques and online retail website. Defendants, through the offer to sell and sale of counterfeit and infringing Louis Vuitton branded products, are directly, and unfairly, competing with Louis Vuitton's economic interests in the United States, including within the State of Florida and causing Louis Vuitton irreparable harm and damage within this jurisdiction.

5. Like many other famous trademark owners, Louis Vuitton suffers ongoing daily and sustained violations of its trademark rights at the hands of counterfeiters and infringers, such as Defendants herein, who wrongfully reproduce and counterfeit Louis Vuitton's trademarks for the twin purposes of (i) duping and confusing the consuming public and (ii) earning substantial profits across their e-commerce stores. The natural and intended byproduct of Defendants' combined actions is the erosion and destruction of the goodwill associated with the Louis Vuitton name and associated trademarks and the destruction of the legitimate market sector in which it operates.

6. To combat the indivisible harm caused by the concurrent actions of Defendants and others engaging in similar conduct, each year Louis Vuitton expends significant monetary resources in connection with trademark enforcement efforts, including legal fees, investigative fees, and support mechanisms for law enforcement. The exponential growth of counterfeiting over the Internet, including through online marketplace and social media platforms, has created an environment that requires Louis Vuitton to expend significant resources across a wide spectrum of efforts to protect both consumers and itself from confusion and erosion of the goodwill embodied in Louis Vuitton's brand.

THE DEFENDANTS

7. Defendants are individuals, business entities of unknown makeup, or unincorporated associations each of whom, upon information and belief, either reside and/or operate in foreign jurisdictions, redistribute products from the same or similar sources in those locations, and/or ship their goods from the same or similar sources in those locations to consumers as well as shipping and fulfillment centers, warehouses, and/or storage facilities within the United States to redistribute their products from those locations. Defendants have the capacity to be sued pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b). Defendants target their business activities towards consumers throughout the United States, including within this district, through the simultaneous operation of, at least, their commercial Internet based e-commerce stores under the E-commerce Store Names.

8. Certain Defendants operates under their respective E-commerce Store Name in tandem with electronic communication via private messaging applications and/or services, thereby creating an interconnected ecosystem which functions as an online marketplace operation.

9. Defendants use aliases in conjunction with the operation of their businesses.

10. Defendants are the past and/or present controlling forces behind the sale of products bearing and/or using counterfeits and infringements of Louis Vuitton's trademarks as described herein.

11. Defendants directly engage in unfair competition with Louis Vuitton by advertising, offering for sale, and selling goods each bearing and/or using counterfeits and infringements of one or more of Louis Vuitton's trademarks to consumers within the United States and this district through e-commerce stores using, at least, the E-commerce Store Names, as well as additional e-commerce store or seller identification aliases not yet known to Louis Vuitton.

Defendants have purposefully directed some portion of their unlawful activities toward consumers in the State of Florida through the advertisement, offer to sell, sale, and/or shipment of counterfeit and infringing Louis Vuitton branded goods into the State.

12. Defendants have registered, established or purchased, and maintained their E-commerce Store Names. Defendants may have engaged in fraudulent conduct with respect to the registration or maintenance of the E-commerce Store Names by providing false and/or misleading information to the relevant e-commerce platforms where they offer to sell and/or sell.

13. Defendants will likely continue to register or acquire new e-commerce store names, or other aliases, as well as related payment accounts, for the purpose of selling and/or offering for sale goods bearing and/or using counterfeit and confusingly similar imitations of one or more of Louis Vuitton's trademarks unless preliminarily and permanently enjoined.

14. Defendants' E-commerce Store Names, associated payment accounts, and any other alias e-commerce store or seller identification names used in connection with the sale of counterfeit and infringing goods bearing and/or using one or more of Louis Vuitton's trademarks are essential components of Defendants' online activities and are one of the means by which Defendants further their counterfeiting and infringement schemes and cause harm to Louis Vuitton. Moreover, Defendants are using Louis Vuitton's famous name and/or trademarks to drive Internet consumer traffic to at least one of their e-commerce stores operating under the E-commerce Store Names, thereby increasing the value of the E-commerce Store Names and decreasing the size and value of Louis Vuitton's legitimate marketplace and intellectual property rights at Louis Vuitton's expense.

The Louis Vuitton Marks are used in connection with the manufacture and distribution of high-quality goods in the categories identified above. True and correct copies of the Certificates of Registration for the Louis Vuitton Marks are attached hereto as Composite Exhibit “1.”

16. The Louis Vuitton Marks have been used in interstate commerce to identify and distinguish Louis Vuitton’s high-quality goods for an extended period of time.

17. The Louis Vuitton Marks have been used in commerce by Louis Vuitton long prior in time to Defendants' use of copies of those Marks. The Louis Vuitton Marks have never been assigned or licensed to any of the Defendants in this matter.

18. The Louis Vuitton Marks are symbols of Louis Vuitton's quality, reputation and goodwill and have never been abandoned. Louis Vuitton has continuously used the Louis Vuitton Marks since registration.

19. The Louis Vuitton Marks are well-known and famous and have been for many years. Louis Vuitton expends substantial resources developing, advertising and otherwise promoting the Louis Vuitton Marks and products bearing the Louis Vuitton Marks. The Louis Vuitton Marks qualify as famous marks as that term is used in 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)(1).

20. Further, Louis Vuitton extensively uses, advertises, and promotes the Louis Vuitton Marks in the United States in association with the sale of high-quality goods and has carefully monitored and policed the use of the Louis Vuitton Marks.

21. As a result of Louis Vuitton's efforts, consumers readily identify merchandise bearing or sold using the Louis Vuitton Marks as being high quality goods sponsored and approved by Louis Vuitton.

22. Accordingly, the Louis Vuitton Marks have achieved secondary meaning among consumers as identifiers of high-quality goods.

23. Genuine goods bearing and/or using the Louis Vuitton Marks are widely legitimately advertised, promoted, and offered for sale by Louis Vuitton, its authorized distributors, and unrelated third parties via the Internet. Visibility on the Internet, particularly via Internet search engines and social media platforms, is important to Louis Vuitton's overall marketing and consumer education efforts. Thus, Louis Vuitton expends significant monetary and other resources on Internet marketing and consumer education regarding its products, including search engine optimization (“SEO”), search engine marketing (“SEM”), and social media strategies. Those strategies allow Louis Vuitton and its authorized retailers to educate consumers fairly and legitimately about the value associated with the Louis Vuitton brand and the goods sold thereunder, and the problems associated with the counterfeiting of Louis Vuitton’s trademarks.

Defendants’ Infringing Activities

24. Defendants are each promoting, advertising, distributing, offering for sale, and/or selling goods in interstate commerce bearing and/or using counterfeit and confusingly similar imitations of one or more of the Louis Vuitton Marks (the “Counterfeit Goods”) through at least the e-commerce stores operating under the E-commerce Store Names. Specifically, Defendants are each using the Louis Vuitton Marks to initially attract online consumers and drive them to Defendants’ e-commerce stores operating under their E-commerce Store Names. Defendants are each using identical copies of one or more of the Louis Vuitton Marks for different quality goods. Louis Vuitton has used the Louis Vuitton Marks extensively and continuously before Defendants began offering counterfeit and confusingly similar imitations of Louis Vuitton’s merchandise.

25. Defendants’ Counterfeit Goods are of a quality substantially different than that of Louis Vuitton’s genuine goods. Defendants are actively using, promoting and otherwise advertising, distributing, offering for sale, and/or selling substantial quantities of their Counterfeit Goods with the knowledge and intent that such goods will be mistaken for the genuine high-quality goods offered for sale by Louis Vuitton, despite Defendants’ knowledge that they are without authority to use the Louis Vuitton Marks. Defendants’ actions are likely to cause confusion of consumers, at the time of initial interest, sale, and in the post-sale setting, who will believe all of Defendants' goods offered for sale in or through Defendants' e-commerce stores are genuine goods originating from, associated with, and/or approved by Louis Vuitton.

26. Defendants advertise their e-commerce stores, including their Counterfeit Goods offered for sale, to the consuming public via e-commerce stores on, at least, the E-commerce Store Names. In so doing, Defendants improperly and unlawfully use one or more of the Louis Vuitton Marks without Louis Vuitton's permission.

27. Defendants are concurrently employing and benefitting from substantially similar advertising and marketing strategies based, in large measure, upon an unauthorized use of counterfeits and infringements of the Louis Vuitton Marks. Specifically, Defendants are using counterfeits and infringements of Louis Vuitton's famous name and the Louis Vuitton Marks to make their e-commerce stores selling unauthorized goods appear more relevant and attractive to consumers searching for both Louis Vuitton and non-Louis Vuitton goods and information online. By their actions, Defendants are jointly contributing to the creation and maintenance of an unlawful marketplace operating in parallel to the legitimate marketplace for Louis Vuitton's genuine goods. Defendants are causing individual, concurrent, and indivisible harm to Louis Vuitton and the consuming public by (i) depriving Louis Vuitton and other third parties of their right to fairly compete for space online and within search engine results and reducing the visibility of Louis Vuitton's genuine goods on the World Wide Web, (ii) causing an overall degradation of the value of the goodwill associated with the Louis Vuitton Marks by viewing inferior products in either the pre or post sale setting, and/or (iii) increasing Louis Vuitton's overall cost to market its goods and educate consumers about its brand via the Internet.

28. Defendants are concurrently conducting and targeting their counterfeiting and infringing activities toward consumers and likely causing unified harm within this district and elsewhere throughout the United States. As a result, Defendants are defrauding Louis Vuitton and the consuming public for Defendants' own benefit.

29. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants have had full knowledge of Louis Vuitton's ownership of the Louis Vuitton Marks, including its exclusive right to use and license such intellectual property and the goodwill associated therewith.

30. Defendants' use of the Louis Vuitton Marks, including the promotion and advertisement, reproduction, distribution, sale and offering for sale of their Counterfeit Goods, is without Louis Vuitton's consent or authorization.

31. Defendants are engaging in the above-described unlawful counterfeiting and infringing activities knowingly and intentionally or with reckless disregard or willful blindness to Louis Vuitton's rights for the purpose of trading on Louis Vuitton's goodwill and reputation.

32. Defendants' above identified infringing activities are likely to cause confusion, deception, and mistake in the minds of consumers before, during and after the time of purchase. Moreover, Defendants' wrongful conduct is likely to create a false impression and deceive consumers, the public, and the trade into believing there is a connection or association between Louis Vuitton's genuine goods and Defendants' Counterfeit Goods, which there is not.

33. Given the visibility of Defendants' various e-commerce stores and the similarity of their concurrent actions, it is clear Defendants are either affiliated, or at a minimum, cannot help but know of each other's existence and the unified harm likely to be caused to Louis Vuitton and the overall consumer market in which they operate because of Defendants' concurrent actions.

34. Although some Defendants may be physically acting independently, they may properly be deemed to be acting in concert because the combined force of their actions serves to multiply the harm caused to Louis Vuitton.

35. Defendants' payment and financial accounts, including but not limited to those specifically set forth on Schedule "A," are being used by Defendants to accept, receive, and deposit profits from Defendants' trademark counterfeiting and infringing and unfairly competitive activities connected to their E-commerce Store Names and any other alias e-commerce store names being used and/or controlled by them.

36. Further, Defendants, upon information and belief, are likely to transfer or secret their assets to avoid payment of any monetary judgment awarded to Louis Vuitton.

37. Louis Vuitton has no adequate remedy at law.

38. Louis Vuitton is suffering irreparable injury and has suffered substantial damages because of Defendants' unauthorized and wrongful use of the Louis Vuitton Marks. If Defendants' intentional counterfeiting, infringing, and unfairly competitive activities are not preliminarily and permanently enjoined by this Court, Louis Vuitton and the consuming public will continue to be harmed while Defendants wrongfully earn a substantial profit.

39. The harm and damages sustained by Louis Vuitton has been directly and proximately caused by Defendants' wrongful reproduction, use, advertisement, promotion, offers to sell, and sale of their Counterfeit Goods.

COUNT I - TRADEMARK COUNTERFEITING AND INFRINGEMENT
PURSUANT TO § 32 OF THE LANHAM ACT (15 U.S.C. § 1114)

40. Louis Vuitton hereby adopts and re-alleges the factual allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 39 above.

41. This is an action for trademark counterfeiting and infringement against Defendants based on their use of counterfeit and confusingly similar imitations of the Louis Vuitton Marks in commerce in connection with the promotion, advertisement, distribution, offering for sale, and sale of the Counterfeit Goods.

42. Defendants are promoting and otherwise advertising, selling, offering for sale and distributing goods bearing and/or using counterfeits and/or infringements of one or more of the Louis Vuitton Marks. Defendants are continuously infringing and inducing others to infringe the Louis Vuitton Marks by using one or more of them to advertise, promote, offer to sell and/or sell counterfeit and infringing Louis Vuitton branded goods.

43. Defendants' concurrent counterfeiting and infringing activities are likely to cause and are causing confusion, mistake, and deception among members of the trade and the general consuming public as to the origin and quality of Defendants' Counterfeit Goods.

44. Defendants' unlawful actions have caused and are continuing to cause unquantifiable damages and irreparable harm to Louis Vuitton and are unjustly enriching Defendants with profits at Louis Vuitton's expense.

45. Defendants' above-described unlawful actions constitute counterfeiting and infringement of the Louis Vuitton Marks in violation of Louis Vuitton's rights under § 32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

46. Louis Vuitton has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable injury and damages while Defendants are unjustly profiting due to Defendants' above-described activities if Defendants are not preliminarily and permanently enjoined.

COUNT II - FALSE DESIGNATION OF ORIGIN
PURSUANT TO § 43(a) OF THE LANHAM ACT (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

47. Louis Vuitton hereby adopts and re-alleges the factual allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 39 above.

48. Defendants' Counterfeit Goods bearing, offered for sale and sold using copies of one or more of the Louis Vuitton Marks have been widely advertised and offered for sale throughout the United States via the Internet.

49. Defendants' Counterfeit Goods bearing, offered for sale, and sold using copies of one or more of the Louis Vuitton Marks are virtually identical in appearance to Louis Vuitton's genuine goods. However, Defendants' Counterfeit Goods are different in quality. Accordingly, Defendants' activities are likely to cause confusion among consumers as to at least the origin or sponsorship of their Counterfeit Goods.

50. Defendants have used in connection with their advertisement, offer for sale, and sale of their Counterfeit Goods, false designations of origin and false descriptions and representations, including words or other symbols and designs which falsely describe or represent such goods and have caused such goods to enter into commerce in the United States with full knowledge of the falsity of such designations of origin and such descriptions and representations, all to Louis Vuitton's detriment.

51. Defendants have each authorized infringing uses of one or more of the Louis Vuitton Marks in Defendants' advertisement and promotion of their counterfeit and infringing branded goods. Some Defendants have also misrepresented to members of the consuming public that the Counterfeit Goods they advertise and sell are genuine, non-infringing goods.

52. Additionally, Defendants are simultaneously using counterfeits and infringements of one or more of the Louis Vuitton Marks to unfairly compete with Louis Vuitton and others for space within organic and paid search engine and social media results. Defendants are thereby jointly (i) depriving Louis Vuitton of valuable marketing and educational space online which would otherwise be available to Louis Vuitton, and (ii) reducing the visibility of Louis Vuitton's genuine goods on the World Wide Web and across social media platforms.

53. Defendants' above-described actions are in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1125(a).

54. Louis Vuitton has no adequate remedy at law and has sustained both individual and indivisible injury and damages caused by Defendants' concurrent conduct. Absent an entry of an injunction by this Court, Louis Vuitton will continue to suffer irreparable injury to its goodwill and business reputation, as well as monetary damages, while Defendants are unjustly profiting.

COUNT III – COMMON LAW UNFAIR COMPETITION

55. Louis Vuitton hereby adopts and re-alleges the factual allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 39 above.

56. This is an action against Defendants based on their promotion, advertisement, distribution, offering for sale, and/or sale of goods bearing and/or using marks that are virtually identical to one or more of the Louis Vuitton Marks in violation of Florida's common law of unfair competition.

57. Specifically, Defendants are each promoting and otherwise advertising, selling, offering for sale and distributing goods bearing and/or using counterfeits and infringements of one or more of the Louis Vuitton Marks. Defendants are also each using counterfeits and infringements of one or more of the Louis Vuitton Marks to unfairly compete with Louis Vuitton and others for (i) space in search engine and social media results across an array of search terms and (ii) visibility on the World Wide Web.

58. Defendants' infringing activities are likely to cause and are causing confusion, mistake and deception among consumers as to the origin and quality of Defendants' e-commerce stores as a whole and all products sold therein by their use of the Louis Vuitton Marks.

59. Louis Vuitton has no adequate remedy at law and has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable injury and damages because of Defendants' concurrent actions while Defendants are unjustly profiting due to their above-described activities if Defendants are not preliminarily and permanently enjoined.

COUNT IV - COMMON LAW TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT

60. Louis Vuitton hereby adopts and re-alleges the factual allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 39 above.

61. Louis Vuitton is the owner of all common law rights in and to the Louis Vuitton Marks.

62. This is an action for common law trademark infringement against Defendants based on their promotion, advertisement, offering for sale, and sale of their Counterfeit Goods using one or more of the Louis Vuitton Marks.

63. Specifically, each Defendant is promoting, and otherwise advertising, distributing, offering for sale, and selling goods bearing and/or using infringements of one or more of the Louis Vuitton Marks.

64. Defendants' infringing activities are likely to cause and are causing confusion, mistake and deception among consumers as to the origin and quality of Defendants' Counterfeit Goods bearing and/or using the Louis Vuitton Marks.

65. Louis Vuitton has no adequate remedy at law and has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable injury and damages because of Defendants' concurrent actions while Defendants are unjustly profiting due to their above-described activities if Defendants are not preliminarily and permanently enjoined.
