IDENTIFIED IN SCHEDULE "A",

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Sharp Shirter, Inc. ("Sharp Shirter"), by and through its undersigned attorneys, hereby prays to this honorable Court for relief based on the following:

INTRODUCTION

1. This action has been filed by Sharp Shirter in attempt to combat e-commerce store operators who trade upon Sharp Shirter's reputation and goodwill by making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use that same unauthorized and unlicensed products which infringe on Sharp Shirter's copyrights (collectively, the "Infringing Products"). Non-inclusive exemplars of the Infringing Products are shown in Exhibit B attached hereto. The Infringing Products can be identified using the Product Identification Numbers shown in Exhibit C attached hereto.

2. Ivan Laliashvilli ("Laliashvilli") is an artist based in Amsterdam, that created the two-dimensional artworks (the "Subject Artworks") depicted in Exhibit A. Laliashvilli creates and sells various products featuring the Subject Artworks.

3. Sharp Shirter acquired rights to the Subject Artworks via transfer agreement.

4. The Defendants create numerous Internet stores and design them to appear to be selling genuine products copyrighted by Sharp Shirter, while selling inferior imitations of Sharp Shirter's Artworks. The Defendant stores share unique identifiers, such as design elements and similarities of the infringing products offered for sale, establishing a logistical relationship between them and suggesting that Defendants' illegal operations arise from the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions and occurrences. Defendants attempt to avoid liability by going to great lengths to conceal both their identities and the full scope and interworking of their illegal infringing operation. Sharp Shirter is therefore forced to file this action to combat Defendants' infringement of Sharp Shirter's Copyrighted Artworks, and to protect unknowing customers from purchasing unauthorized products over the Internet.

5. Sharp Shirter brings this action for willful copyright infringement and piracy committed for purposes of commercial advantage or private financial gain by the reproduction or distribution, including by electronic means, of one or more copies of copyrighted works in violation of 17 U.S.C. §501, and for all the remedies available under the Copyright Act 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq.

6. This unauthorized usage constituted copyright infringement, amongst other things, as set forth below.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action arising under the Copyright Act of 1976, Title 17 U.S.C., §§ 101, et seq., under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a), (b).

8. Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this district because they purposefully direct their activities toward and conduct business with consumers throughout the United States, including within the state of Illinois and this district, through at least the internet-based e-commerce stores accessible in Illinois.

9. Defendants are further subject to personal jurisdiction in this district because each Defendant directly targets consumers in the United States, including in Illinois, through at least the fully interactive commercial Internet stores operating under the Defendant domain names and/or the Online Marketplace Accounts identified in Schedule A attached hereto (collectively, the “Defendants” or “Defendant Internet Stores”). Specifically, the Defendants are reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive Internet Stores through which Illinois residents can purchase products infringing Sharp Shirter’s copyrighted artworks. Each of the Defendants has targeted sales from Illinois residents by operating online stores that offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, accepts payment in United States Dollars, and on information and belief, has sold infringing products to Illinois residents. Each of the Defendants are committing tortious and illegal activities directed towards the state of Illinois and causing substantial injury in Illinois, and Sharp Shirter’s claims arise out of those activities.

10. Alternatively, Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this district under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(k)(2) because (i) Defendants are not subject to jurisdiction in any state’s court of general jurisdiction; and (ii) exercising jurisdiction is consistent with the United States Constitution and laws.

11. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1400(a) because Defendants and their agents are subject to the court’s personal jurisdiction and therefore reside in this judicial district or may be found here.

12. Venue in this judicial district is otherwise proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(3) because Defendants are subject to the court’s personal jurisdiction and not a resident in the United States and therefore there is no district in which any action may otherwise be brought.

PARTIES

13. Sharp Shirter is an Ohio corporation with headquarters at 3135 Chester Ave., Cleveland, Ohio 44114.

14. Sharp Shirter owns the copyrights described herein that are the subject of this action.

15. Sharp Shirter creates and lawfully acquires the rights for original artworks and designs and sells products featuring same. Sharp Shirter sells hundreds of products featuring its original designs and artworks every year.

16. Sharp Shirter is in the business of developing, obtaining, marketing, selling, creating, and distributing products featuring its original artworks, which it owns valid copyrights for (collectively, the “Subject Artworks”). Sharp Shirter obtained copyright ownership of the Subject Artworks by written transfer.

17. Defendants have the capacity to be sued under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b).

18. The Defendants in Schedule A (collectively, “Defendants”) are individuals and business entities who, upon information and belief, reside primarily in foreign jurisdictions. Defendants conduct business throughout the United States, including within Illinois and in this District, through the operation of fully interactive commercial websites and online marketplaces operating under the Defendant Internet Stores. Each Defendant targets the United States, including

Illinois, and has, upon information and belief, sold, offered for sale, and continues to sell, products featuring the Subject Artworks to consumers within the United States and this District.

19. Defendants have purposefully directed some portion of their illegal activities towards consumers in the state of Illinois through the advertisement, offer to sell, sale, and/or shipment of infringing goods to residents in the State.

20. Upon information and belief, Defendants may have engaged in fraudulent conduct providing false and/or misleading information to the Internet based e-commerce platforms or domain registrar where they offer to sell and/or sell infringing products.

21. Upon information and belief, Defendants will likely continue to sell and offer for sale products featuring Sharp Shirter's intellectual property, namely products featuring in whole, or in part, the Subject Artworks, unless preliminarily and permanently enjoined.

22. Defendants use their Internet-based businesses to infringe the intellectual property rights of Sharp Shirter and others.

23. Defendants, through the sale and offer to sell infringing products, are directly, and unfairly, competing with Sharp Shirter's economic interests in the state of Illinois and causing Sharp Shirter harm and damage within this jurisdiction.

24. The natural and intended byproduct of Defendants' actions is the erosion and destruction of the goodwill associated with Sharp Shirter's intellectual property rights and the destruction of the legitimate market sector in which she operates.

25. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant hereto, Defendants had actual or constructive knowledge of Sharp Shirter's intellectual property rights, including Sharp Shirter's exclusive right to use and license such intellectual property rights.

26. Sharp Shirter is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all times relevant hereto each of the Defendants were the agent, affiliate, officer, director, manager, principal, alter-ego, and/or employee of the remaining Defendants and was at all times acting within the scope of such agency, affiliation, alter-ego relationship and/or employment; and actively participated in or subsequently ratified and adopted, or both, each and all of the acts or conduct alleged, with full knowledge of all the facts and circumstances, including, but not limited to, full knowledge of each and every violation of Sharp Shirter's rights and the damages to Sharp Shirter proximately caused thereby.

JOINDER OF DEFENDANTS IN THIS ACTION IS PROPER

27. Defendants are promoting, selling, offering for sale and distributing goods bearing identical or confusingly similar imitations of Sharp Shirter's intellectual property within this District.

28. Joinder of all Defendants is permissible under Fed. R. Civ. P. 20(a)(2), permitting joinder of persons in an action where any right to relief is asserted against defendants jointly, severally, or in the alternative with respect to or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences; and any question of law or fact common to all defendants will arise in this action.

29. Joinder of the multiple Defendants is permitted because Sharp Shirter asserts rights to relief against these Defendants jointly, severally, or in the alternative with respect to or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences; and common questions of law or fact will arise in the action.

30. Joinder of the multiple Defendants serves the interests of convenience and judicial economy, which will lead to a just, speedy, and inexpensive resolution for Sharp Shirter, Defendants, and this Court.

31. Joinder of the multiple Defendants will not create any unnecessary delay, nor will it prejudice any party. On the other hand, severance is likely to cause delays and prejudice Sharp Shirter and Defendants alike.

32. Joinder of the multiple Defendants is procedural only and does not affect the substantive rights of any defendant listed on Schedule A hereto.

33. This court has jurisdiction over the multiple Defendants. Venue is proper in this court for this dispute involving the multiple Defendants.

34. Sharp Shirter's claims against the multiple Defendants are all transactionally related.

35. Defendants' actions are logically related. All Defendants are engaging in the same systematic approach of establishing online storefronts to redistribute illegal products from the same or similar sources while maintaining financial accounts that the Defendants can easily conceal to avoid any real liability for their actions.

36. All Defendants undertake efforts to conceal their true identities from Sharp Shirter to avoid accountability for their activities.

37. All Defendants use payment and financial accounts associated with their online storefronts or the online platforms where their online storefronts reside.

38. All Defendants use their payment and financial accounts to accept, receive, and deposit profits from their illegal activities.

39. All Defendants can easily and quickly transfer or conceal their funds in their use of payment and financial accounts to avoid detection and liability in the event their efforts are discovered, or Sharp Shirter obtains monetary award.

40. All Defendants understand that their ability to profit through anonymous internet stores is enhanced as their numbers increase, even though they may not all engage in direct communication or coordination.

41. Defendants' business names, associated payment accounts, and any other seller alias or e-commerce stores used in connection with the sale of infringements of Sharp Shirter's intellectual property rights are essential components of Defendants' online activities and are one of the means by which Defendants further their infringement scheme and cause harm to Sharp Shirter.

42. Defendants are using infringements of Sharp Shirter's intellectual property rights to drive Internet consumer traffic to their e-commerce stores and decreasing the size and value of Sharp Shirter's legitimate marketplace and intellectual property rights at Sharp Shirter's expense.

43. Defendants, through the sale and offer to sell infringing products, are directly and unfairly competing with Sharp Shirter's economic interests in the state of Illinois and causing Sharp Shirter harm and damage within this jurisdiction.

44. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant hereto, Defendants had actual or constructive knowledge of Sharp Shirter's intellectual property rights, including Sharp Shirter's exclusive right to use and license such intellectual property rights.

CLAIMS RELATED TO PLAINTIFF'S SUBJECT ARTWORKS

45. Sharp Shirter owns all rights in the Subject Artworks depicted in Exhibit A.

46. Sharp Shirter complied in all respects with the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq., and is the sole owner of the exclusive rights, title, interests, and privileges in and to the Subject Artworks.

47. Sharp Shirter obtained exclusive rights to the work through a transfer agreement, which transferred the copyright ownership of the Subject Artworks to Sharp Shirter.

48. Prior to the acts complained of herein, Sharp Shirter widely publicly displayed and disseminated the Subject Artworks including without limitation on Sharp Shirter's website www.SharpShirter.com and its various social media platforms under the name "Sharp Shirter".

49. Genuine goods bearing Sharp Shirter's copyrighted artworks are sold by Sharp Shirter and its authorized distributors.

50. Defendants, and each of them, have willfully copied, reproduced, distributed, sold, and/or offered for sale Sharp Shirter's Subject Artworks for financial benefit by, without limitation, reproducing the Subject Artworks online and/or products bearing copies of the Artworks for commercial benefit, including without limitation, through Defendant Internet Stores.

51. Defendants are using identical copies of Sharp Shirter's Artworks. True and correct copies and screen captures of exemplars of Defendants' unauthorized use are depicted in Exhibit B ("Infringing Products"). These copies and screen captures represent non-inclusive exemplars of the Infringing Products.

52. Defendants advertise their e-commerce stores to the consuming public via e-commerce stores on Internet marketplace websites. The Infringing Products can be identified by Product Identification Numbers. The Infringing Products Identification Numbers at issue in this case are shown in Schedule A attached hereto.

53. In advertising their stores and products, Defendants improperly and unlawfully use the Subject Artworks without Sharp Shirter's permission.

54. By their actions, Defendants are contributing to the creation and maintenance of an illegal marketplace operating in parallel to the legitimate marketplace for Sharp Shirter's genuine goods.

55. Defendants are causing individual, concurrent and indivisible harm to Sharp Shirter and the consuming public by (i) depriving Sharp Shirter and other third parties of their right to fairly compete for space within search engine results and reducing the visibility of Sharp Shirter's genuine goods on the World Wide Web, (ii) causing an overall degradation of the value associated with the images, and (iii) increasing Sharp Shirter's overall cost to market its goods and educate consumers via the Internet.

56. As a result, Defendants are defrauding Sharp Shirter and the consuming public for Defendants' own benefit. Upon information and belief, Defendants facilitate sales by designing the Defendant Internet Stores so that they appear unknowing to customers to be authorized online retailer, outlet stores, or wholesalers selling genuine Subject Artworks. Many of the Defendant Internet Stores look sophisticated and accept payment in US Dollars via credit or debit cards. Defendant Internet Stores include design elements that make it very difficult for consumers to distinguish such infringing sites from authorized seller websites.

57. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant hereto, Defendants had full knowledge of Sharp Shirter's ownership of the Subject Artwork, including its exclusive right to use and license such Subject Artworks, through Sharp Shirter's numerous online profiles and features, online publications and press featuring Sharp Shirter's work, Sharp Shirter's social media accounts, and/or through viewing the Subject Artworks on third-party websites (e.g., Tumblr, Pinterest, internet search engines, etc.).

58. Defendants' use of the Subject Artworks, including the promotion and advertisement, reproduction, distribution, sale and offering for sale of their infringing goods, is without Sharp Shirter's consent or authorization.

59. Defendants are engaging in the above-described infringing activities knowingly and intentionally or with reckless disregard or willful blindness to Sharp Shirter's rights for the purpose of trading on Sharp Shirter's intellectual property and reputation.

60. Sharp Shirter has not in any way authorized Defendants, or any of them, to copy, reproduce, duplicate, disseminate, distribute, or create derivative works of the Subject Artworks.

61. If Defendants' intentional infringing activities are not preliminarily and permanently enjoined, Sharp Shirter and the consuming public will continue to be harmed.

62. Defendants' infringing activities are likely to cause confusion, deception, and mistake in the minds of consumers before, during and after the time of purchase.

63. Defendants are likely to transfer or conceal their assets to avoid payment of any monetary judgment awarded to Sharp Shirter.

64. Sharp Shirter is suffering irreparable injury and has suffered substantial damages as a result of Defendants' unauthorized and infringing activities and their wrongful use of Sharp Shirter's intellectual property rights.

65. Sharp Shirter should not have competition from Defendants because Sharp Shirter never authorized Defendants to use Sharp Shirter's Subject Artworks.

66. Sharp Shirter has no adequate remedy at law.

82. By reason of the Defendants', and each of their, acts of contributory and vicarious infringement as alleged above, Sharp Shirter has suffered general and special damages in an amount to be established at trial.
