NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

UNICOLORS, INC., a California corporation,

Plaintiff,

THE PARTNERSHIPS AND
UNINCORPORATED ASSOCIATIONS
IDENTIFIED IN SCHEDULE A,

Defendants.

Case No. 1:24-cv-

JURY DEMANDED

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Unicolors, Inc., (“Unicolors”), by and through its undersigned attorneys, hereby prays to this honorable Court for relief based on the following:

INTRODUCTION

1. This action has been filed by Plaintiff in attempt to combat e-commerce store operators who trade upon Plaintiff’s reputation and goodwill by making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use that same unauthorized and unlicensed reproductions that infringe Plaintiff’s copyrights (collectively, the “Infringing Products”).

2. Unicolors owns original two-dimensional textile designs for purposes of garment production. It allocated the designs at issue internal design numbers [REDACTED] [REDACTED] which are duly registered with the U.S. Copyright Office (the “Subject Designs”). The Subject Designs are used by authorized companies to create garments.

3. The Defendants create numerous Internet stores and design them to appear to be selling genuine products copyrighted by Plaintiff, while selling inferior imitations of Plaintiff's Designs. The Defendant Stores share unique identifiers, such as design elements and similarities of the infringing products offered for sale, establishing a logistical relationship between them, and suggesting that Defendants' illegal operations arise from the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions and occurrences. Defendants attempt to avoid liability by going to great lengths to conceal both their identities and the full scope and interworking of their illegal infringing operation. Plaintiff is therefore forced to file this action to combat Defendants' infringement of Plaintiff's Copyrighted Subject Designs, and to protect unknowing customers from purchasing unauthorized products over the Internet.

4. Unicolors brings this action for willful copyright infringement and piracy committed for purposes of commercial advantage or private financial gain by the reproduction or distribution, including by electronic means, of one or more copies of copyrighted works in violation of 17 U.S.C. §501, and for all the remedies available under the Copyright Act 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq.

5. This unauthorized usage constituted copyright infringement, amongst other things, as set forth below.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action arising under the Copyright Act of 1976, Title 17 U.S.C., §§ 101, et seq., under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a), (b).

7. Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this District because they purposefully direct their activities toward and conduct business with consumers throughout the United States, including within the state of Illinois and this district, through at least the internet-based e-commerce stores accessible in Illinois.

8. Defendants are further subject to personal jurisdiction in this district because each Defendant directly targets consumers in the United States, including in Illinois, through at least the fully interactive commercial Internet stores operating under the Defendant domain names and/or the Online Marketplace Accounts identified in Schedule A attached hereto (collectively, “Defendants” or “Defendant Internet Stores”). Specifically, the Defendants are reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive Internet Stores through which Illinois residents can purchase products infringing Plaintiffs copyrighted designs and work. Each of the Defendants has targeted sales from Illinois residents by operating online stores that offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, accepts payment in United States Dollars, and on information and belief, has sold infringing products to Illinois residents. Each of the Defendants are committing tortious and illegal activities directed towards the state of Illinois and causing substantial injury in Illinois, and Plaintiff’s claims arise out of those activities.

9. Alternatively, Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this district under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(k)(2) because (i) Defendants are not subject to jurisdiction in any state’s court of general jurisdiction; and (ii) exercising jurisdiction is consistent with the United States Constitution and laws.

10. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1400(a) because Defendants and their agents are subject to the court’s personal jurisdiction and therefore reside in this judicial district or may be found here.

11. Venue in this judicial district is otherwise proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(3) because Defendants are subject to the court’s personal jurisdiction and not a resident in the United States and therefore there is no district in which any action may otherwise be brought.

PARTIES

12. Unicolors is a California corporation with an office in California and doing business throughout the United States and within this District.

13. Unicolors owns all rights, title, and interest in the Subject Designs and copyrights described herein that are the subject of this action as shown in Exhibit A attached hereto.

14. Unicolors is in the business of developing, marketing, selling, creating, and distributing the Subject Designs. 15. Defendants have the capacity to be sued under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b).

16. The Defendants in Schedule A (collectively, “Defendants”) are individuals and business entities who, upon information and belief, reside primarily in the People’s Republic of China or other foreign jurisdictions. Defendants conduct business throughout the United States, including within Illinois and in this District, through the operation of fully interactive commercial websites and online marketplaces operating under the Defendant Internet Stores. Each Defendant targets the United States, including Illinois, and has, upon information and belief, sold, offered for sale, and continues to sell, products containing the Subject Designs to consumers within the United States and this District.

17. Defendants have purposefully directed some portion of their illegal activities towards consumers in the state of Illinois through the advertisement, offer to sell, sale, and/or shipment of infringing goods to the State.

18. Upon information and belief, Defendants may have engaged in fraudulent conduct providing false and/or misleading information to the Internet based e-commerce platforms or domain registrar where they offer to sell and/or sell infringing products.

19. Upon information and belief, Defendants will likely continue sell and offer for sale products containing Unicolors' Subject Designs, namely products featuring in whole, or in part, the Subject Designs, or unauthorized derivatives thereof (collectively, the "Infringing Products") unless preliminarily and permanently enjoined.

20. Defendants use their Internet-based businesses to infringe the intellectual property rights of Unicolors and others.

21. Defendants, through the sale and offer to sell infringing products, are directly, and unfairly, competing with Unicolors economic interests in the state of Illinois and causing Unicolors harm and damage within this jurisdiction. The Infringing Products are shown in Exhibit B attached hereto.

22. The natural and intended byproduct of Defendants' actions is the erosion and destruction of the goodwill associated with Unicolors' Subject Designs and the destruction of the legitimate market sector in which it operates.

23. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant hereto, Defendants had actual or constructive knowledge of Unicolors' intellectual property rights, including Unicolors' exclusive right to use and license such intellectual property rights.

24. Unicolors is informed and believes and thereon alleges that at all times relevant hereto each of the Defendants were the agent, affiliate, officer, director, manager, principal, alter-ego, and/or employee of the remaining Defendants and was at all times acting within the scope of such agency, affiliation, alter-ego relationship and/or employment; and actively participated in or subsequently ratified and adopted, or both, each and all of the acts or conduct alleged, with full knowledge of all the facts and circumstances, including, but not limited to, full knowledge of each and every violation of Unicolors' rights and the damages to Unicolors proximately caused thereby.

JOINDER OF DEFENDANTS IN THIS ACTION IS PROPER

25. Defendants are promoting, selling, offering for sale and distributing goods bearing identical or strikingly similar imitations of the Subject Designs within this District (collectively, "Infringing Products"). True and correct exemplars of the Infringing Products are shown in Exhibit B attached hereto.

26. Joinder of all Defendants is permissible under Fed. R. Civ. P. 20(a)(2) where any right to relief is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative with respect to or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences; and any question of law or fact common to all Defendants will arise in this action.

27. Joinder of the multiple Defendants is permitted because Unicolors asserts rights to relief against these Defendants jointly, severally, or in the alternative with respect to or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences; and common questions of law or fact will arise in the action.

28. Joinder of the multiple Defendants serves the interests of convenience and judicial economy, which will lead to a just, speedy, and inexpensive resolution for Unicolors, Defendants, and this Court.

29. Joinder of the multiple Defendants will not create any unnecessary delay, nor will it prejudice any party. On the other hand, severance is likely to cause delays and prejudice Unicolors and Defendants alike.

30. Joinder of the multiple Defendants is procedural only and does not affect the substantive rights of any defendant listed on Schedule A hereto.

31. This court has jurisdiction over the multiple Defendants. Venue is proper in this court for this dispute involving the multiple Defendants.

32. Unicolors' claims against the multiple Defendants are all transactionally related.

33. All Defendants' actions are logically related. All Defendants are engaging in the same systematic approach of establishing online storefronts to redistribute illegal products from the same or similar sources while maintaining financial accounts that the Defendants can easily conceal to avoid any real liability for their actions.

34. All Defendants undertake efforts to conceal their true identities from Plaintiff to avoid accountability for their activities.

35. All Defendants use payment and financial accounts associated with their online storefronts or the online platforms where their online storefronts reside.

36. All Defendants use their payment and financial accounts to accept, receive, and deposit profits from their illegal activities.

37. All Defendants can easily and quickly transfer or conceal their funds in their use of payment and financial accounts to avoid detection and liability in the event their efforts are discovered, or Unicolors obtains monetary award.

38. All Defendants understand that their ability to profit through anonymous internet stores is enhanced as their numbers increase, even though they may not all engage in direct communication or coordination.

39. Defendants' business names, associated payment accounts, and any other alias seller names or e-commerce stores used in connection with the sale of infringements of Unicolors' intellectual property rights are essential components of Defendants' online activities and are one of the means by which Defendants further their infringement scheme and cause harm to Unicolors.

40. Defendants are using infringements of Unicolors' intellectual property rights to drive Internet consumer traffic to their e-commerce stores and decreasing the size and value of Unicolors' legitimate marketplace and intellectual property rights at Unicolors' expense.

41. Defendants, through the sale and offer to sell infringing products, are directly and unfairly competing with Unicolors' economic interests in the state of Illinois and causing Unicolors' harm and damage within this jurisdiction.

42. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant hereto, Defendants had actual or constructive knowledge of Unicolors' intellectual property rights, including Unicolors' exclusive right to use and license such intellectual property rights.

CLAIMS RELATED TO PLAINTIFF'S SUBJECT DESIGNS

43. Unicolors created and owns all rights in the Subject Designs shown in Exhibit A.

44. Unicolors complied in all respects with the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, et. seq., and is the sole owner of the exclusive rights, title, interests, and privileges in and to the Subject Designs.

45. Unicolors has registered the Subject Designs with the United States Copyright Office and was granted a copyright registration.

46. Defendants accessed the Subject Designs through one of Unicolors' authorized retailers, widespread display, or access through sampling or one of Unicolors' trade shows and displays.

47. Genuine fabric bearing the Subject Design are sold by Unicolors and its authorized distributors.

48. Defendants, and each of them, have willfully copied, reproduced, distributed, sold, and/or offered for sale the Subject Designs for financial benefit by, without limitation, reproducing the Subject Designs online and/or products bearing copies of the Subject Designs for commercial benefit, including without limitation, through Defendant Internet Stores.

49. Defendants are using identical copies of the Subject Designs on fabric and thereafter using it to create and offer for sell clothing. True and correct screen captures depicting non-inclusive exemplar(s) of the Defendants' unauthorized use are shown in Exhibit B. These copies and screen captures represent non-inclusive exemplars of the Infringing Use.

50. Defendants advertise their e-commerce stores to the consuming public via e-commerce stores on Internet marketplace websites.

51. In advertising their stores and products, Defendants improperly and unlawfully use the Subject Designs without Unicolors' permission.

52. By their actions, Defendants are contributing to the creation and maintenance of an illegal marketplace operating in parallel to the legitimate marketplace for Unicolors' genuine goods.

53. Defendants are causing individual, concurrent and indivisible harm to Unicolors and the consuming public by (i) depriving Unicolors and other third parties of their right to fairly compete for space within search engine results and reducing the visibility of Unicolors' genuine goods on the World Wide Web, (ii) causing an overall degradation of the value associated with the images, and (iii) increasing Unicolors' overall cost to market its goods and educate consumers via the Internet.

54. As a result, Defendants are defrauding Unicolors and the consuming public for Defendants' own benefit. Upon information and belief, Defendants facilitate sales by designing the Defendant Internet Stores so that they appear unknowing to customers to be authorized online retailer, outlet stores, or wholesalers selling genuine Subject Designs. Many of the Defendant Internet Stores look sophisticated and accept payment in US Dollars via credit cards, PayPal, and other legitimate payment methods. Defendant Internet Stores include design elements that make it very difficult for consumers to distinguish such infringing sites from authorized seller websites.

55. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant hereto, Defendants had full knowledge of Unicolors' ownership of the Subject Designs, including its exclusive right to use and license such Subject Designs, through Unicolors' numerous online profiles and features, online publications and press featuring Unicolors' work, Unicolors' social media accounts, and/or through viewing the Subject Designs on third-party websites (e.g., Tumblr, Pinterest, internet search engines, etc.).

56. Defendants' use of the Designs, including the promotion and advertisement, reproduction, distribution, sale and offering for sale their infringing goods, is without Unicolors' consent or authorization.

57. Defendants are engaging in the above-described infringing activities knowingly and intentionally or with reckless disregard or willful blindness to Unicolors' rights for the purpose of trading on Unicolors' intellectual property and reputation.

58. Unicolors has not in any way authorized Defendants, or any of them, to copy, reproduce, duplicate, disseminate, distribute, or create derivative works of the Subject Designs.

59. If Defendants' intentional infringing activities are not preliminarily and permanently enjoined, Unicolors and the consuming public will continue to be harmed.

60. Defendants' infringing activities are likely to cause confusion, deception, and mistake in the minds of consumers before, during and after the time of purchase.

61. Defendants are likely to transfer or conceal their assets to avoid payment of any monetary judgment awarded to Unicolors.

62. Unicolors is suffering irreparable injury and has suffered substantial damages as a result of Defendants' unauthorized and infringing activities and their wrongful use of Unicolors' intellectual property rights.

63. Unicolors should not have competition from Defendants because Plaintiff never authorized Defendants to use Unicolors' Subject Designs.

64. Unicolors has no adequate remedy at law.

without limitation, in the screen captures attached hereto in Exhibit B.

70. Due to Defendants' Infringing Use as alleged herein, Defendants, and each of them, have obtained direct and indirect profits they would not otherwise have realized but for their infringement of Unicolors' rights in the Subject Designs. As such, Unicolors is entitled to disgorgement of Defendants' profits directly and indirectly attributable to Defendants' infringement of its rights in the Subject Designs in an amount to be established at trial.

71. Defendants' conduct constitutes willful and direct copyright infringement. The similarities between the Subject Designs and Infringing Use further proves the willful and direct infringement by Defendants.

73. Due to Defendants', and each of their, acts of infringement, Unicolors has actually and proximately suffered actual, general, and special damages in an amount to be established at trial under 17 U.S.C. § 504(b) and (c).
