KATE LOUISE POWELL,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 1:25-cv-01307

THE PARTNERSHIPS AND UNINCORPORATED
ASSOCIATIONS IDENTIFIED ON SCHEDULE “A”,

Defendants.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, KATE LOUISE POWELL (“Powell” or “Plaintiff”), by Plaintiff’s undersigned counsel, hereby complains of the Partnerships and Unincorporated Associations identified on Schedule A attached hereto (collectively, “Defendants”), and for Plaintiff’s Complaint hereby alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a)–(b), and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

2. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, and this Court may properly exercise personal jurisdiction over Defendants since each of the Defendants directly targets consumers in the United States, including Illinois, through at least the fully interactive commercial internet stores operating under the Defendant aliases and/or the online marketplace accounts identified in Schedule A attached hereto (collectively, the “Defendant Internet Stores”). Specifically, Defendants are reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores through which Illinois residents can purchase products bearing infringing versions of Plaintiff's copyrighted work. Each of the Defendants has targeted Illinois residents by operating online stores that offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, accept payment in U.S. dollars and, on information and belief, have sold products bearing infringing versions of Plaintiff's federally registered copyrighted work to residents of Illinois. Each of the Defendants is committing tortious acts in Illinois, is engaging in interstate commerce, and has wrongfully caused Plaintiff substantial injury in the State of Illinois. Additionally, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(k)(2) confers personal jurisdiction over Defendants because the claims asserted herein arise under federal copyright law, Defendants would not be subject to jurisdiction in any state's courts of general jurisdiction, and exercising jurisdiction is consistent with the United States Constitution and laws.

INTRODUCTION

3. Plaintiff, Kate Louise Powell, is the owner of the federal copyright registration that protects the creative content of Plaintiff's illustration. Powell is an illustrator and animal rights activist. Plaintiff aims to use illustration to shed light on specific acts of animal abuse and morally inconsistent human behaviors and to fuel conversations about how everyone perceives and treats non-human animals.

4. This action has been filed by Plaintiff to combat online copyright infringers who trade upon Plaintiff's reputation, goodwill, and valuable copyright by selling and/or offering for sale products in connection with Plaintiff's illustration. In addition, the Defendants are selling unauthorized products that are based on and derived from the copyrighted subject matter of Plaintiff's illustration.

5. Plaintiff is the owner of United States Copyright Registration No. VA 2-326-027 (the "Kate Louise Powell Work") and the registration is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Upon information and belief, the copyright has an effective date that predates the Defendants' acts of copyright infringement.

6. In an effort to illegally profit from the creative content of the Kate Louise Powell Work, Defendants have created numerous Defendant Internet Stores and designed them to appear to be selling authorized Kate Louise Powell Products.

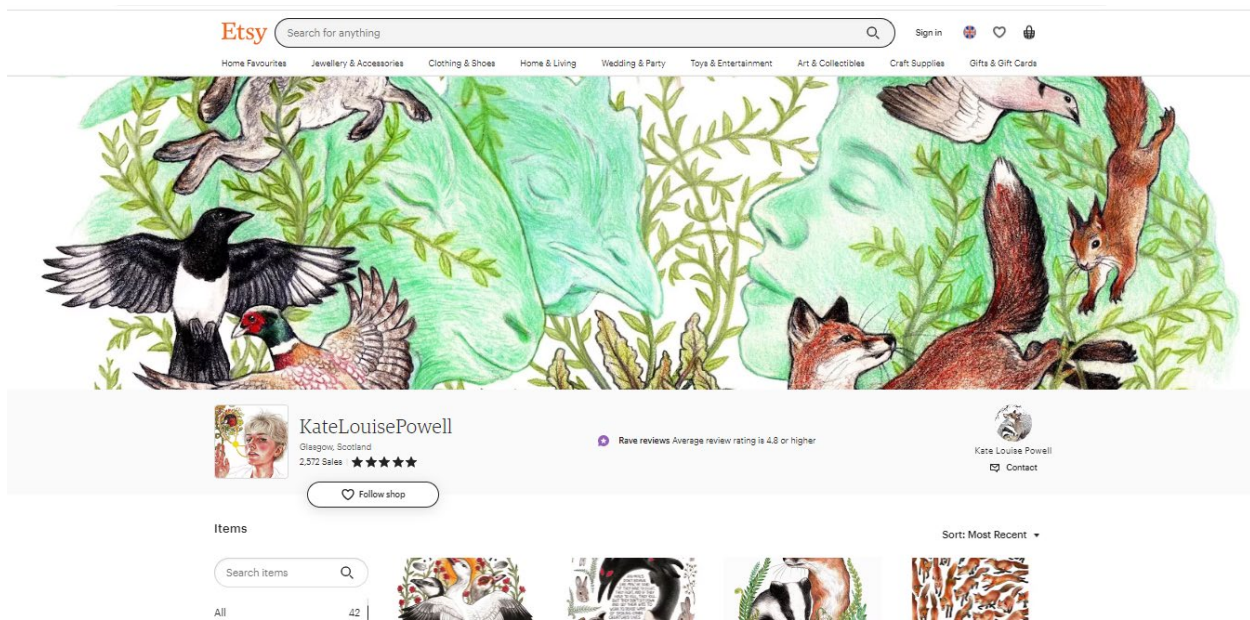

7. The Defendant Internet Stores share unique identifiers, such as design elements and similarities of the unauthorized products offered for sale, establishing a logical relationship between them and suggesting that Defendants' illegal operations arise out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences. Defendants attempt to avoid liability by going to great lengths to conceal both their identities and the full scope and interworking of their illegal operation. Plaintiff is forced to file this action to combat Defendants' piracy of the Kate Louise Powell Work. Plaintiff has been and continues to be irreparably damaged through loss of control over the creative content of the valuable copyright, reputation, goodwill, the quality, and ability to license as a result of Defendants' actions and seeks injunctive and monetary relief.

THE PLAINTIFF

8. Plaintiff, Kate Louise Powell, is the owner of the Copyright Registration that protects the creative content of the Kate Louise Powell Work. Powell is an illustrator and animal rights activist. After drawing recreationally her whole life, she started to take her artistic career more seriously in 2012 and produced a number of popular illustrations with reoccurring motifs of flowers and butterflies. Since then, she has experimented with photography, mixed media, and paint, but she still works mostly in pencil/colored pencil and black ink. Throughout the end of high school and during her foundation year at Leeds College of Art, she strove to create more personal and emotive portraits, and eventually discovered her niche by focusing on animal rights activism art during her Illustration BA Honors degree at the University of Edinburgh. Since late 2016, she focused on combining her two biggest interests to produce work that is emotive, educational, and deliberately provocative. She aims to use illustration to shed light on specific acts of animal abuse and morally inconsistent human behaviors, and to fuel conversations about how everyone perceives and treats non-human animals. She received a Distinction grade in her Foundation Diploma in Art & Design at Leeds College of Art and a First-Class degree with Honors after studying Illustration at Edinburgh College of Art.

9. Powell has expended substantial time, money, and other resources in developing, advertising, and otherwise promoting the Kate Louise Powell Work. As a result, products associated with the Kate Louise Powell Work are recognized and exclusively associated by consumers, the public, and the trade as products authorized by Powell (the “Kate Louise Powell Products”).

11. In an effort to illegally profit from the creative content of the Kate Louise Powell Work, Defendants have created numerous Defendant Internet Stores and designed them to appear to be selling authorized Kate Louise Powell Products. Upon information and belief, Defendants facilitate sales by designing the Defendant Internet Stores so that they appear to unknowing consumers to be authorized online retailers, outlet stores, or wholesalers selling genuine Kate Louise Powell Products.

12. Powell has invested substantial time, money, and effort in building up and developing consumer awareness, goodwill, and recognition in the Kate Louise Powell Work.

13. The success of the Kate Louise Powell Work is due in large part to Plaintiff's marketing, promotional, and distribution efforts.

14. As a result of Plaintiff's efforts, the quality of the Kate Louise Powell Products, the promotional efforts for Plaintiff's products and designs, press and media coverage, and social media coverage, members of the public have become familiar with the Kate Louise Powell Work and associate it exclusively with Powell.

15. Powell has made efforts to protect Plaintiff's interests in and to the Kate Louise Powell Work. No one other than Powell and her licensees are authorized to manufacture, import, export, advertise, create derivative works, offer for sale, or sell any goods utilizing the Kate Louise Powell Work without the express written permission of Plaintiff.

THE DEFENDANTS AND THE DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

16. Defendants are individuals and business entities who, upon information and belief, reside in the People's Republic of China or other foreign jurisdictions. Each Defendant targets the United States, including Illinois, and has offered to sell and, on information and belief, has sold and continues to sell illegal Kate Louise Powell Products to consumers within the United States, including Illinois and in this judicial district.
