FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

SESAME WORKSHOP,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 25-cv-02107

THE PARTNERSHIPS and UNINCORPORATED ASSOCIATIONS
IDENTIFIED ON SCHEDULE “A,”

Defendants.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Sesame Workshop (“Plaintiff”) hereby brings the present action against the Partnerships and Unincorporated Associations Identified on Schedule A attached hereto (collectively, “Defendants”) and alleges as follows:

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff’s claims pursuant to the provisions of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051, et seq., the Copyright Act 17 U.S.C. § 501, et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a)-(b) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

2. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, and this Court may exercise personal jurisdiction over Defendants because Defendants structure their business activities to target consumers in the United States, including Illinois, through at least the fully interactive e-commerce stores operating under the aliases identified on Schedule A attached hereto (the “Seller Aliases”). Specifically, Defendants have targeted sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target United States consumers; offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois; accept payment in U.S. dollars; and, on information and belief, sell products using infringing and counterfeit versions of Plaintiff's federally registered trademarks and/or unauthorized copies of Plaintiff's federally registered copyrighted works, including the distinctive characters embodied therein (collectively, the "Unauthorized Products") to residents of Illinois. Each of the Defendants is committing tortious acts in Illinois, is engaging in interstate commerce, and has wrongfully caused Plaintiff substantial injury in the state of Illinois.

II. INTRODUCTION

3. Plaintiff filed this case to prevent e-commerce store operators who trade upon Plaintiff's reputation and goodwill from further selling and/or offering for sale Unauthorized Products. Defendants create e-commerce stores under one or more Seller Aliases and then advertise, offer for sale, and/or sell Unauthorized Products to unknowing consumers. E-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases share identifiers, such as design elements and similarities of the Unauthorized Products offered for sale, establishing that a logical relationship exists between them, and that Defendants' infringing operation arises out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences. Defendants take advantage of a set of circumstances, including the anonymity and mass reach afforded by the Internet and the cover afforded by international borders, to violate Plaintiff's intellectual property rights with impunity. Defendants attempt to avoid liability by operating under one or more Seller Aliases to conceal their identities, locations, and the full scope and interworking of their operation. Plaintiff is forced to file this action to combat Defendants' counterfeiting of its registered trademarks and infringement of its registered copyrighted works, as well as to protect consumers from purchasing Unauthorized Products over the Internet. Plaintiff has been, and continues to be, irreparably damaged through consumer confusion and dilution of its valuable trademarks and infringement of its copyrighted works because of Defendants' actions and therefore seeks injunctive and monetary relief.

III. THE PARTIES

4. Plaintiff, Sesame Workshop, was formed in 1970 and is a global impact nonprofit organization with its principal place of business in New York and is the owner of the trademarks and copyrights asserted in this action.

5. Sesame Workshop, originally known as the Children's Television Workshop, was founded by Joan Ganz Cooney and Lloyd Morrisett with the goal of producing educational television for children. Sesame Workshop's mission is to help children everywhere grow smarter, stronger, and kinder, and to reach families in more than 150 countries with playful early learning empower each generation to build a better world. Alongside educational television shows, digital content, and print materials, Sesame Workshop also engages in philanthropic funded initiatives and international outreach. However, the organization is best known for creating the iconic children's program Sesame Street, which premiered on November 10, 1969.

6. A longtime favorite of children and adults, and a pioneer of children's television, Sesame Street is a popular series that combines live-action, comedy, animation, and puppetry. Set on a fictional urban street, the program features a diverse cast of human characters and beloved Muppets, such as Elmo, Big Bird, and Cookie Monster. Sesame Street addresses a full gamut of age-appropriate lessons including literacy, numeracy, healthy habits, self-expression, empathy, and friendship. Additionally, the program promotes cultural diversity and inclusivity, promoting respect for different backgrounds and perspectives. Through its engaging characters and storytelling, Sesame Street fosters both cognitive and social growth in early childhood.

7. Over fifty years later, Sesame Street remains one of Plaintiff's most popular shows. Sesame Street garners over 15 million viewers every month in the United States, across all touchpoints, including broadcast, streaming platforms, and on Plaintiff’s YouTube channel. Moreover, Sesame Street has been translated into 70 languages and has over 150 million viewers around the world in 150 countries. Some of the characters and character names made famous by Sesame Street include, but are not limited to:¹

Elmo
Big Bird

Bert	 A yellow Muppet character with a large orange nose, a tuft of black hair, and a striped shirt, waving both hands.

8. Since the release of the pilot, Sesame Street has amassed a large and dedicated fan base of both children and adults. As such, the program’s ability to captivate and engage its viewers has led to widespread acclaim from viewers and critics alike. Notably, Sesame Street has (1) been inducted in the Television Hall of Fame in 1990; (2) won two Peabody Awards, an award held in high esteem within the media industry; (3) won several Grammy Awards for its original songs and albums related to Sesame Street; and (4) won over two hundred Emmy Awards—more than any other television show. These achievements reflect the show’s recognition and influence on educational television.

9. Before Defendants’ acts described herein, Plaintiff undertook a significant, ongoing licensing program resulting in the launch of numerous products bearing its famous SESAME STREET mark. Plaintiff has also registered a multitude of works related to the Sesame Street series and the characters embodied therein with the United States Copyright Office (the “Sesame Street Copyrighted Works”). The registrations include but are not limited to: “Elmo.” (U.S. Copyright Registration No. VA0001693455), “Big Bird.” (U.S. Copyright Registration No. VA0001693460), “Cookie Monster.” (US Copyright Registration No. VA0001693456), “Grover.” (U.S. Copyright Registration No. VA0001693450), “Bert.” (U.S. Copyright Registration No.

VA0001693461), and “Ernie.” (U.S. Copyright Registration No. VA0001693452) all issued by the Registrar of Copyrights on January 1, 2009.

10. The Sesame Street Copyrighted Works are registered with the United States Copyright Office. True and correct copies of the records from the U.S. Copyright Office website for the Sesame Street Copyrighted Works are attached hereto as Exhibit 1. The Sesame Street Copyrighted Works embody the distinctive characters found in paragraph 7 above.

11. Among the exclusive rights granted to Plaintiff under the U.S. Copyright Act are the exclusive rights to reproduce, prepare derivative works of, distribute copies of, and display the Sesame Street Copyrighted Works to the public. Since first publication, the Sesame Street Copyrighted Works have been used on Plaintiff’s licensed products and are featured on Plaintiff’s official websites, <https://sesameworkshop.org/> and <https://sesamestreet.org/>.

12. Plaintiff’s authorized licensees market and sell a variety of Sesame Street branded products, including apparel such as shirts, sweatshirts, children’s and infants’ clothing; accessories such as backpacks and hats; books; drinkware; pillows and pillowcases; plushies; and toys (collectively, “Sesame Street Products”).

13. Sesame Street Products have become enormously popular and even iconic, driven in part by the quality standards and innovative designs of Plaintiff’s authorized licensees. Among the purchasing public, Sesame Street Products are instantly recognizable as such. The Sesame Street brand has become a global success and Sesame Street Products are among the most recognizable in the world. Sesame Street Products are distributed and sold to consumers by Plaintiff’s authorized licensees, including PBS, Carters, Hanna Andersson, Hot Topic, Macys, and Target, through both websites and physical retail storefronts.

14. Plaintiff has continuously used the SESAME STREET trademark, and other trademarks, and has continuously licensed products for sale under its trademarks (the “Sesame Street Trademarks”). As a result of this continuous use as well as the fame and popularity of Sesame Street, strong common law trademark rights have amassed in the Sesame Street Trademarks. Plaintiff’s use of the marks has also built substantial goodwill in the Sesame Street Trademarks. The Sesame Street Trademarks are famous marks and valuable assets of Plaintiff. The Sesame Street Trademarks are also distinctive when applied to Sesame Street Products, signifying to the purchaser that the products come from Plaintiff and are manufactured to Plaintiff's quality standards. Plaintiff has ensured that its products bearing the Sesame Street Trademarks are manufactured to the highest quality standards.

18. The Sesame Street Trademarks are famous marks, as that term is used in 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)(1) and have been continuously used and never abandoned. The innovative marketing and product designs of Sesame Street Products have enabled the Sesame Street brand to achieve widespread recognition and fame and have made the Sesame Street Trademarks some of the most well-known marks in the entertainment industry. The widespread fame, outstanding reputation, and significant goodwill associated with the Sesame Street brand have made the Sesame Street Trademarks valuable assets of Plaintiff.

19. Products bearing the Sesame Street Trademarks have been the subject of substantial and continuous marketing and promotion by Plaintiff's authorized licensees. Plaintiff's authorized licensees, including PBS, Carters, Hanna Andersson, Hot Topic, Macys, and Target, have marketed and promoted, and continue to market and promote, the Sesame Street Trademarks to consumers through both websites and physical retail storefronts.

20. Plaintiff's authorized licensees have expended substantial time, money, and other resources in advertising and promoting the Sesame Street Trademarks. Specifically, Plaintiff's authorized licensees have expended substantial resources in advertising, promoting, and marketing products featuring the Sesame Street Trademarks. Sesame Street Products have also been the subject of extensive unsolicited publicity resulting from consumers' confidence that Sesame Street Products are of high quality, and trustworthy. As a result, products bearing the Sesame Street Trademarks are widely recognized and exclusively associated by consumers as being high-quality products sourced from Plaintiff. Sesame Street Products have become among the most popular of their kind in the world. The Sesame Street Trademarks have achieved tremendous fame and recognition, adding to the inherent distinctiveness of the marks. As such, the goodwill associated with the Sesame Street Trademarks is of immeasurable value to Plaintiff.

21. Sesame Street Products are sold only through authorized retail channels and are recognized by the public as being exclusively associated with the Sesame Street brand.

22. Defendants are unknown individuals and business entities who own and/or operate one or more of the e-commerce stores under the Seller Aliases identified on Schedule A and/or other seller aliases not yet known to Plaintiff. On information and belief, Defendants reside and/or operate in foreign jurisdictions and redistribute products from the same or similar sources in those locations. Defendants have the capacity to be sued pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure

17(b).

23. On information and belief, Defendants, either individually or jointly, operate one or more e-commerce stores under the Seller Aliases listed in Schedule A attached hereto. Tactics used by Defendants to conceal their identities and the full scope of their operation make it virtually impossible for Plaintiff to learn Defendants' true identities and the exact interworking of their network. If Defendants provide additional credible information regarding their identities, Plaintiff will take appropriate steps to amend the Complaint.

IV. DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

24. The success of the Sesame Street brand has resulted in significant counterfeiting of the Sesame Street Trademarks and infringement of the Sesame Street Copyrighted Works. Because of this, Plaintiff has implemented a brand protection program by investigating suspicious websites and online marketplace listings identified in proactive Internet sweeps. Recently, Plaintiff has identified many fully interactive e-commerce stores offering Unauthorized Products on online marketplace platforms like AliExpress.com ("AliExpress"), Amazon.com, Inc. ("Amazon"), eBay Inc. ("eBay"), ecrater.com ("eCRATER"), Focus Technology Co., Ltd. ("MadeInChina"), WhaleCo, Inc. ("Temu"), and Walmart, Inc. ("Walmart"), including the e-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases. The Seller Aliases target consumers in this Judicial District and throughout the United States. According to a report prepared for The Buy Safe America Coalition, most infringing products now come through international mail and express courier services because of increased sales from foreign online infringers. The Counterfeit Silk Road: Impact of Counterfeit Consumer Products Smuggled Into the United States, prepared by John Dunham & Associates (Exhibit 3).

25. Because the infringing products sold by offshore online infringers do not enter normal retail distribution channels, the US economy lost an estimated 300,000 or more full-time jobs in the wholesale and retail sectors alone in 2020. Id. When accounting for lost jobs from suppliers that would serve these retail and wholesale establishments, and the lost jobs that would have been induced by employees re-spending their wages in the economy, the total economic impact resulting from the sale of infringing products was estimated to cost the United States economy over 650,000 full-time jobs that would have paid over $33.6 billion in wages and benefits. Id. Additionally, it is estimated that the importation of infringing goods cost the United States government nearly $7.2 billion in personal and business tax revenues in the same period. Id.

26. Furthermore, online marketplace platforms like those used by Defendants do not adequately subject new sellers to verification and confirmation of their identities, allowing infringers to “routinely use false or inaccurate names and addresses when registering with these e-commerce platforms.” Exhibit 4, Daniel C.K. Chow, Alibaba, Amazon, and Counterfeiting in the Age of the Internet, 40 NW. J. INT’L L. & BUS. 157, 186 (2020); see also report on “Combating Trafficking in Counterfeit and Pirated Goods” prepared by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security’s Office of Strategy, Policy, and Plans (Jan. 24, 2020), attached as Exhibit 5, and finding that on “at least some e-commerce platforms, little identifying information is necessary for a counterfeiter to begin selling” and that “[t]he ability to rapidly proliferate third-party online marketplaces greatly complicates enforcement efforts, especially for intellectual property rights holders.” Infringers hedge against the risk of being caught and having their websites taken down from an e-commerce platform by establishing multiple virtual storefronts. Exhibit 5 at p. 22. Since platforms generally do not require a seller on a third-party marketplace to identify the underlying business entity, infringers can have many different profiles that can appear unrelated even though they are commonly owned and operated. Exhibit 5 at p. 39. Further, “[e]-commerce platforms create bureaucratic or technical hurdles in helping brand owners to locate or identify sources of [infringing products] and [infringers].” Exhibit 4 at 186-187. Specifically, brand owners are forced to “suffer through a long and convoluted notice and takedown procedure only [for the infringer] to reappear under a new false name and address in short order.” Id. at p. 161.

27. Defendants have targeted sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target United States consumers using one or more Seller Aliases; offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois; accept payment in U.S. dollars; and, on information and belief, sell Unauthorized Products to residents of Illinois.

28. Defendants concurrently employ and benefit from similar advertising and marketing strategies. For example, Defendants facilitate sales by designing the e-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases so that they appear to unknowing consumers to be authorized online retailers, outlet stores, or wholesalers. E-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases appear sophisticated and accept payment in U.S. dollars via numerous methods, including credit cards, Alipay, Amazon Pay, PayPal, and/or Stripe. E-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases often include content and images that make it very difficult for consumers to distinguish such stores from an authorized retailer. Plaintiff has not licensed or authorized Defendants to use any of the Sesame Street Trademarks and/or to copy or distribute the Sesame Street Copyrighted Works, and none of the Defendants are authorized retailers of Sesame Street Products.

29. Many Defendants also deceive unknowing consumers by using the Sesame Street Trademarks without authorization within the content, text, and/or meta tags of their e-commerce stores to attract consumers using search engines to find websites relevant to Sesame Street Products. Other e-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases omit using the Sesame Street Trademarks in the item title to evade enforcement efforts while using strategic item titles and descriptions that will trigger their listings when consumers are searching for Sesame Street Products.

30. E-commerce store operators like Defendants commonly engage in fraudulent conduct when registering the Seller Aliases by providing false, misleading and/or incomplete information to e-commerce platforms to prevent discovery of their true identities and the scope of their e-commerce operation.

31. E-commerce store operators like Defendants regularly register or acquire new seller aliases for the purpose of offering for sale and selling Unauthorized Products. Such seller alias registration patterns are one of many common tactics used by e-commerce store operators like Defendants to conceal their identities and the full scope and interworking of their operation, and to avoid being shut down.

32. Even though Defendants operate under multiple fictitious aliases, the e-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases often share identifiers, such as templates with common design elements that intentionally omit any contact information or other information for identifying Defendants or other Seller Aliases they operate or use. E-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases include other notable common features such as use of the same registration patterns, accepted payment methods, check-out methods, keywords, advertising tactics, similarities in price and quantities, the same incorrect grammar and misspellings, and/or the use of the same text and images. Additionally, Unauthorized Products for sale by the Seller Aliases bear similar irregularities and indicia of being unauthorized to one another, suggesting that the Unauthorized Products were manufactured by and come from a common source and that Defendants are interrelated.

33. E-commerce store operators like Defendants communicate with each other through QQ.com chat rooms and utilize websites, like sellerdefense.cn, that provide tactics for operating multiple online marketplace accounts and evading detection by brand owners. Websites like sellerdefense.cn also tip off e-commerce store operators like Defendants of new intellectual property infringement lawsuits filed by brand owners, such as Plaintiff, and recommend that e-commerce operators cease their infringing activity, liquidate their associated financial accounts, and change the payment processors that they currently use to accept payments in their online stores.

34. Infringers, such as Defendants, typically operate under multiple seller aliases and payment accounts so that they can continue operation despite Plaintiff's enforcement. E-commerce store operators like Defendants maintain off-shore bank accounts and regularly move funds from their financial accounts to off-shore accounts outside the jurisdiction of this Court to avoid payment of any monetary judgment awarded to Plaintiff.

35. Defendants are working to knowingly and willfully manufacture, import, distribute, offer for sale, and/or sell Unauthorized Products in the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences. Defendants, without any authorization or license from Plaintiff, have knowingly and willfully used, and continue to use the Sesame Street Trademarks and/or copies of the Sesame Street Copyrighted Works in connection with the advertisement, distribution, offering for sale, and sale of Unauthorized Products into the United States and Illinois over the Internet.

36. Defendants' unauthorized use of the Sesame Street Trademarks and/or Sesame Street Copyrighted Works in connection with the advertising, distribution, offering for sale, and sale of Unauthorized Products into the United States, including Illinois, is likely to cause, and has caused, confusion, mistake, and deception by and among consumers and is irreparably harming Plaintiff.

TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT AND COUNTERFEITING (15 U.S.C. § 1114)

37. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

COUNT II
FALSE DESIGNATION OF ORIGIN (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

44. Plaintiff hereby re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

Certain Defendants'³ promotion, marketing, offering for sale, and/or sale of Unauthorized Products has created and is creating a likelihood of confusion, mistake, and deception among the general public as to the affiliation, connection, or association with Plaintiff or the origin, sponsorship, or approval of the Unauthorized Products by Plaintiff.

46. By using the Sesame Street Trademarks in connection with the offering for sale and/or sale of Unauthorized Products, certain Defendants create a false designation of origin and a misleading representation of fact as to the origin and sponsorship of the Unauthorized Products.

47. Certain Defendants' false designation of origin and misrepresentation of fact as to the origin and/or sponsorship of the Unauthorized Products to the general public involves the use of counterfeit marks and is a willful violation of Section 43 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125.

48. Plaintiff has no remedy at law and will continue to suffer irreparable harm to its reputation and the associated goodwill of the Sesame Street brand if certain Defendants' actions

50. The Sesame Street Copyrighted Works constitute original works and copyrightable subject matter pursuant to the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq.

51. Plaintiff owns the Sesame Street Copyrighted Works. Plaintiff has complied with the registration requirements of 17 U.S.C. § 411(a) for the Sesame Street Copyrighted Works. The Sesame Street Copyrighted Works are protected by copyright registration numbers which were duly issued to Plaintiff by the United States Copyright Office. 52. The Sesame Street Copyrighted Works are published on the Internet and available to Defendants online. As such, Defendants had access to the Sesame Street Copyrighted Works via the Internet.

53. Without authorization from Plaintiff, or any right under the law, certain Defendants⁴ have deliberately copied, displayed, distributed, reproduced, and/or made derivative works incorporating the Sesame Street Copyrighted Works on the e-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases and the corresponding Unauthorized Products. Certain Defendants' derivative works are virtually identical to and/or are substantially similar to the look and feel of the Sesame Street Copyrighted Works. Such conduct infringes and continues to infringe the
