RICHEMONT INTERNATIONAL S.A.,

Plaintiff,

THE PARTNERSHIPS AND
UNINCORPORATED ASSOCIATIONS
IDENTIFIED IN SCHEDULE “A,”

Defendants.

No. 25-cv-02322

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMPLAINT

Richemont International S.A., (“Plaintiff”) by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby files this Complaint for trademark infringement under the Lanham Act, design patent infringement under the Patent Act, offering for sale and selling counterfeit goods in violation of Plaintiff’s exclusive rights, violations of the Illinois Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act, and civil conspiracy against the Partnerships and Unincorporated Associations Identified in Schedule “A” (“Defendants”). In support hereof, Plaintiff states as follows:

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action pursuant to the provisions of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051, et seq., the Patent Act, 35 U.S.C. § 1, et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a)-(b), and 28 U.S.C. § 1331. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims in this action that arise under the laws of the State of Illinois pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a) because the state law claims are so related to the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy and derive from a common nucleus of operative facts.

2. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, and this Court may properly exercise personal jurisdiction over Defendants, since each Defendant directly targets business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois, through their operation of or assistance in the operation of fully interactive, commercial internet stores operating under Defendant domain names and/or Defendant Internet Stores identified in Schedule A. Specifically, each Defendant directly reaches out to do business with Illinois residents by operating or assisting in the operation of one or more commercial, interactive e-commerce stores that sell products infringing Plaintiff's federally registered trademarks and design patent directly to Illinois consumers. In short, each Defendant is committing tortious acts in Illinois, is engaging in interstate commerce, and has wrongfully caused Plaintiff substantial injury in the State of Illinois.

3. Joinder of the Defendants is proper under Fed. R. Civ. P. 20(a) and 35 U.S.C. § 299 as the claims against Defendants arise from the same series of transactions or occurrences relating to offering for sale and selling the same accused products, resulting in a "substantial evidentiary overlap," and share common questions of law and fact. The overlap is evidenced by the identical nature of the products, common sources, packaging, and marketing strategies used by Defendants.

II. INTRODUCTION

4. Plaintiff filed this action to combat online infringers and counterfeiters who trade upon Plaintiff's reputation and goodwill by 1) selling and/or offering for sale unauthorized and unlicensed products using counterfeit versions of Plaintiff's federally registered trademarks and trade dress; and/or (2) making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use of unauthorized and unlicensed products that infringe Plaintiff's design patent. See Exhibit 1. Defendants created internet stores ("Defendant Internet Stores" or the "Stores") by the dozens and designed them to appear to be selling genuine copies of Plaintiff's products when in fact the Stores are selling counterfeits to unknowing customers, and/or making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use of infringing products to unknowing consumers.

5. Defendant Internet Stores share unique identifiers, such as similar design elements of the infringing product offered for sale and, on information and belief, these similarities suggest that Defendant Internet Stores share common manufacturing sources, thus establishing that the Defendants' counterfeiting and infringing operations arise out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences. Defendants have gone to great lengths to avoid liability by concealing both their identities and the full scope and interworking of their counterfeiting operation, including changing the names of Stores multiple times, opening new Stores, helping their friends open Stores, and making subtle changes to their products. Plaintiff has been forced to file this action to combat Defendants' willful infringement of Plaintiff's registered trademarks and design patent, as well as to protect unknowing consumers from purchasing infringing products over the internet. Because of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff has been and continues to be irreparably damaged both through consumer confusion, dilution, and tarnishment of its valuable trademarks and through its loss of its lawful patent rights to exclude others from making, using, selling, offering for sale, and importing its patented designs. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks injunctive and monetary relief.

III. THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff Richemont International S.A.

6. Plaintiff is a public limited company organized and existing under the laws of Switzerland and has its principal place of business at Chemin de la Chênaie 50, 1293 Bellevue, Switzerland. Plaintiff is a global leader in the luxury goods industry, overseeing a prestigious

The genuine products have been positively reviewed at exhibitions, on social media, and in magazines.

9. Plaintiff incorporates a variety of distinctive marks in the design of its various [REDACTED] Products. As a result of its long-standing use, Plaintiff has established common law trademark and trade dress rights in these marks. It has also registered trademarks, including the following trademarks and trade dress ([REDACTED] Trademarks”), with the United States Patent and Trademark Office, and uses them in connection with the advertisement, design, distribution, offer for sale, and sale of its [REDACTED] Products

10. The registrations for [REDACTED] Trademarks constitute prima facie evidence of their validity and of Plaintiff's exclusive right to use [REDACTED] Trademarks pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1057(b). [REDACTED] Trademarks have been used continuously by Plaintiff, its predecessors-in-interest, and associated entities in the United States for decades and have never been abandoned since the first use. [REDACTED] Trademarks are famous throughout the United States and the world.

11. [REDACTED] Trademarks are exclusive to Plaintiff and are displayed extensively on [REDACTED] Products as well as in Plaintiff's marketing and promotion materials. [REDACTED] Trademarks are distinctive when applied to the [REDACTED] Products, signifying to the purchaser that the products come from Plaintiff and are manufactured to Plaintiff's exacting quality standards. Whether Plaintiff manufactures the products itself or licenses others to do so, Plaintiff ensures that products bearing its trademarks and trade dress are manufactured to the highest quality standard.

12. [REDACTED] Products are also known for their distinctive patented designs. Accessories fashioned after these designs are associated with the quality and innovation that the public has come to expect from [REDACTED] Products. Some of the designs are represented in the following design patent (“[REDACTED] Design”).

REGISTRATION NUMBER	PATENT CLAIM	ISSUE DATE
[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]	[REDACTED]

13. Plaintiff is the lawful assignee of all rights, titles, and interests in and to [REDACTED] Design.

14. The above U.S. registrations for [REDACTED] Trademarks and Design are valid, subsisting, in full force and effect and are currently in use in connection with [REDACTED] Products. True and correct copies of the U.S. Registration Certificates for the above-listed trademarks, trade dress, and design patent are attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

15. Plaintiff is engaged in the business of distributing and retailing high-quality [REDACTED] Products within the Northern District of Illinois under its federally registered trademarks, trade dress, and design patent. Plaintiff spends millions of dollars monthly in marketing, advertising, and otherwise promoting [REDACTED] Products. Products bearing [REDACTED] Trademarks and Design have become among the most popular of their kind in the United States and the world. The [REDACTED] brand and products have also been the subject of extensive unsolicited publicity resulting from its exceptional quality, innovative designs, and renown as desired luxury items. [REDACTED] Trademarks have achieved tremendous fame and recognition which has only added to the inherent or acquired distinctiveness of the marks. As such, the goodwill associated with [REDACTED] Trademarks and Design is of incalculable and inestimable value to Plaintiff.

Defendants

16. Defendants are individuals and entities who, upon information and belief, reside in the People's Republic of China or other foreign jurisdictions. Defendants conduct business throughout the United States, including within the state of Illinois and in this Judicial District, through the operation of fully interactive commercial websites and online commercial marketplaces operating under Defendant Internet Stores. Each Defendant targets the United States, including Illinois, and has offered to sell and, on information and belief, has sold and continues to sell infringing products to consumers within the United States, including Illinois and this Judicial District.

17. Defendants are an interrelated group of infringers and counterfeiters who create numerous Defendant Internet Stores and design these stores to appear to be selling genuine [REDACTED] Products, while they actually sell inferior imitations of [REDACTED] Products. Defendants also knowingly and willfully manufacture, import, distribute, offer for sale, and sell products that infringe Plaintiff's design patent. Defendant Internet Stores share unique identifiers, such as common design elements, same or similar counterfeit products offered for sale, similar counterfeit product descriptions, same or substantially similar shopping cart platforms, accepted payment methods, and check-out methods, lack of contact information, and identically or similarly priced counterfeit products and volume sale discounts. As such, Defendant Internet Stores bear a logical relationship among them and suggest that Defendants' illegal operations arise out of the same transactions or occurrences. The tactics used by Defendants to conceal their identities and the full scope of their counterfeiting operation make it virtually impossible for Plaintiff to learn the precise scope and the exact interworking of their counterfeit network. If Defendants provide additional credible information regarding their identities, Plaintiff will take appropriate steps to amend the Complaint.

IV. DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

18. The success of Plaintiff's brand has resulted in significant infringement and counterfeiting. Plaintiff has identified numerous marketplace listings on e-Commerce platforms such as, but not limited to, Alibaba, AliExpress, Amazon, eBay, and Walmart, which, under various aliases, have been offering for sale, completing sales, and shipping illegal products to consumers in this Judicial District and throughout the United States. Defendants have persisted in creating new aliases. E-commerce sales, including e-commerce internet stores like those of Defendants, have resulted in a sharp increase in the shipment of unauthorized products into the United States. See Exhibit 2, U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Intellectual Property Rights Seizure Statistics, Fiscal Year 2024. According to Customs and Border Patrol's ("CBP") report, from Fiscal Year (FY) 2020 to FY 2024, the total number of goods seized for IPR violations has more than doubled. In addition to seizure, CBP executed 99,959 alternative enforcement actions, such as abandonment and destruction. Id. China and Hong Kong are consistently the top two for IPR seizures. In FY 2024, seizures from China and Hong Kong accounted for approximately 90% of the total quantity seized. Id. The vast majority of IPR seizures continue to take place within the express consignment and mail shipping methods. In FY 2024, 97% of IPR seizures in the cargo environment occurred in the de minimis shipments. Id. Counterfeit and pirated products account for billions of dollars in economic losses, resulting in tens of thousands of lost jobs for legitimate businesses and broader economic losses, including lost tax revenue.

19. Groups of counterfeiters, such as Defendants here, are typically in communication with each other. They regularly participate in QQ.com chat rooms and also communicate through websites such as sellerdefense.cn, kaidianyo.com, and kuajingvs.com, where they discuss tactics for operating multiple accounts, evading detection, pending litigation, and potential new lawsuits.

20. Counterfeiting rings take advantage of the anonymity provided by the internet, which allows them to evade enforcement efforts to combat counterfeiting. For example, counterfeiters take advantage of the fact that marketplace platforms do not adequately subject new sellers to verification and confirmation of their identities, allowing counterfeiters to “routinely use false or inaccurate names and addresses when registering with these Internet platforms.” See Exhibit 3, Daniel C.K. Chow, Alibaba, Amazon, and Counterfeiting in the Age of the Internet, 41 Nw. J. Int’l. L. & Bus. 24 (2020). Additionally, “Internet commerce platforms create bureaucratic or technical hurdles in helping brand owners to locate or identify sources of counterfeits and counterfeiters.” Id. at 25. Therefore, with the absence of regulation, Defendants may and do garner sales from Illinois residents by setting up and operating e-commerce internet stores that target United States consumers using one or more aliases, offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, accept payment in U.S. dollars, and, on information and belief, have sold counterfeit products to residents of Illinois.

21. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant hereto, Defendants in this action have had full knowledge of Plaintiff’s ownership of [REDACTED] Trademarks and Design, including its exclusive right to use and license such intellectual property and their associated goodwill. Defendants Internet Stores also use the same pictures to advertise their infringing product that Plaintiff uses on its webpage and other online marketplaces to sell and advertise its genuine [REDACTED] Products, sowing further confusion among potential purchasers.

22. Defendants go to great lengths to conceal their identities by using multiple fictitious names and addresses to register and operate their massive network of Defendant Internet Stores. Defendant domain names often use privacy services that conceal the owners' identity and contact information. Upon information and belief, Defendants regularly create new websites and online marketplace accounts on various platforms using the identities listed in Schedule A of this Complaint, as well as other unknown fictitious names and addresses. Such Defendant Internet Store registration patterns are one of the many common tactics used by Defendants to conceal their identities, the full scope and interworking of their massive counterfeiting operation, and to avoid being shut down.

23. The infringing products for sale in Defendant Internet Stores bear similarities and indicia of being related to one another, suggesting that the infringing products were manufactured by and come from a common source and that, upon information and belief, Defendants are interrelated.

24. Upon information and belief, Defendants work in active concert to knowingly and willfully manufacture, import, distribute, offer for sale, and sell infringing products in the same transaction or occurrence or the same series of transactions or occurrences. Defendants, without any authorization or license from Plaintiff, have jointly and severally, knowingly and willfully, offered for sale, sold, and/or imported into the United States for subsequent resale or use of products that infringe [REDACTED] Design. Each e-commerce store operating under an alias offers shipping to the United States, including Illinois, and, on information and belief, each Defendant has sold infringing products in the United States and Illinois over the internet.

25. Upon information and belief, Defendants also deceive unknowing customers by using [REDACTED] Trademarks without authorization within the content, text, and/or metatags of their websites and marketplace storefronts to attract various search engines on the Internet looking for websites relevant to consumer searches for Plaintiff's [REDACTED] branded products. Additionally, upon information and belief, Defendants use other unauthorized search engine optimization tactics and social media spamming so that the Defendant Internet Stores listings show up at or near the top of relevant search results after others are shut down. As such, Plaintiff also seeks to disable Defendant domain names owned by Defendants that are the means by which the Defendants could continue to sell counterfeit products.

26. Defendants, without authorization or license from Plaintiff, knowingly and willfully used and continue to use the [REDACTED] Trademarks in connection with the advertisement, offer for sale, and sale of the counterfeit products, through, inter alia, the internet. The infringing products are not [REDACTED] Products by Plaintiff. Plaintiff did not manufacture, inspect, or package the infringing products and did not approve the counterfeit products for sale or distribution. Each of the Defendants' Internet Stores offers shipping to the United States, including Illinois, and, on information and belief, each Defendant has sold counterfeit products into the United States, including Illinois.

27. Defendants' use of [REDACTED] Trademarks on or in connection with advertising, marketing, distribution, offering for sale, and sale of infringing products is likely to cause and has caused confusion, mistake, and deception among consumers, including those in Illinois and this Judicial District, and is irreparably harming Plaintiff.

28. Upon information and belief, Defendants will continue to register or acquire listings for the purpose of selling infringing products that infringe upon [REDACTED] Trademarks unless preliminarily and permanently enjoined.

COUNT I

TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT AND COUNTERFEITING (15 U.S.C. § 1114)

29. Plaintiff hereby realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 28.

30. This is a trademark infringement and counterfeit action against Defendants based on their unauthorized use in commerce of counterfeit imitations of federally registered [REDACTED] Trademarks in connection with the sale, offering for sale, distribution, and/or advertising of infringing goods. [REDACTED] Trademarks are distinctive. Consumers have come to expect the highest quality from Plaintiff's products provided under the [REDACTED] Trademarks.

31. Defendants have sold, offered to sell, marketed, distributed, and advertised, and are still selling, offering to sell, marketing, distributing, and advertising products bearing [REDACTED] Trademarks without Plaintiff's permission.

32. Plaintiff is the exclusive owner of [REDACTED] Trademarks. Plaintiff's U.S. registrations for [REDACTED] Trademarks are in full force and effect. See Exhibit 1. Upon information and belief, Defendants have knowledge of Plaintiff's rights in [REDACTED] Trademarks and are willfully infringing and intentionally using [REDACTED] Trademarks in connection with counterfeit items. Defendants' willful, intentional, and unauthorized use of [REDACTED] Trademarks is likely to cause confusion, mistake, and deception as to the origin and quality of the counterfeit goods among the general public.

33. Defendants' activities constitute willful trademark infringement and counterfeiting under Section 32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

34. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law, and if Defendants' actions are not enjoined, Plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable harm to its reputation and the goodwill of its well-known trademarks and trade dress.

35. The injuries sustained by Plaintiff have been directly and proximately caused by Defendants' wrongful reproduction, use, advertisement, promotion, offer to sell, and sale of counterfeit versions of Plaintiff's [REDACTED] Products.

COUNT II

INFRINGEMENT OF UNITED STATES DESIGN PATENT (35 U.S.C. § 271)

36. Plaintiff hereby realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 35.

37. Plaintiff is the lawful assignee of all right, title, and interest in the [REDACTED] Design. *See Exhibit 1.

38. Defendants are making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use of infringing products that infringe the ornamental designs claimed in the Plaintiff's design patent either directly or under the doctrine of equivalents.

39. Defendants have been and are infringing Plaintiff's design patent by making, using, selling, or offering for sale in the United States, or importing into the United States, including within this judicial district, the accused products in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(a).

40. Defendants have infringed Plaintiff's design patent through the aforesaid acts and will continue to do so unless enjoined by this Court. Defendants' wrongful conduct has caused Plaintiff to suffer irreparable harm resulting from the loss of its lawful patent rights to exclude others from making, using, selling, offering for sale, and importing the patented design. Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283.

41. Defendants have infringed Plaintiff's design patent because, in the eye of an ordinary observer, giving such attention as a purchaser usually gives, the ornamental design of Plaintiff's design patent and the overall design features of Defendants' products are substantially the same, if not identical, with resemblance such as to deceive an ordinary observer, including to deceive such observer to purchase an infringing product supposing it to be Plaintiff's product protected by Plaintiff's design patent.

42. Plaintiff is entitled to recover damages adequate to compensate for the infringement, including Defendants' profits pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 289. Plaintiff is entitled to recover any other damages that are appropriate pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284.

COUNT III

FALSE DESIGNATION OF ORIGIN (15 U.S.C. § 1125)

43. Plaintiff hereby realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 42.

44. Defendant's advertising, marketing, promotion, distribution, display, offering for sale, sale, and/or otherwise dealing in counterfeit versions of Plaintiff's products has created and is creating a likelihood of confusion, mistake, and deception among the public as to the affiliation, connection, or association with Plaintiff or the origin, sponsorship, or approval of such products.

45. By manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale, selling, and/or otherwise dealing in the counterfeit products, Defendants have offered and shipped goods in interstate commerce.

46. Likewise, by manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale, selling, and/or otherwise dealing in the counterfeit products, Defendants have and continue to trade on the extensive goodwill of Plaintiff to induce customers to purchase a counterfeit version of Plaintiff's products, thereby directly competing with Plaintiff. Such conduct has permitted and will continue to permit Defendants to make substantial sales and profits based on the goodwill and reputation of Plaintiff, which Plaintiff has amassed through its lengthy nationwide marketing, advertising, sales, and cumulative consumer recognition.

47. Defendants knew or, by the exercise of reasonable care, should have known that their past, current, and continuing advertising, marketing, promotion, distribution, display, offering for sale, sale and/or otherwise dealing in the counterfeit goods has and will continue to cause confusion and mistake or to deceive purchasers, users, and the public.

48. In addition, by using Plaintiff's trademarks and trade dress in connection with the sale of counterfeit products, Defendants create a false designation of origin and a misleading representation of the fact as to the origin and sponsorship of the counterfeit product. By their use of Plaintiff's original photographs in association with the offer and sale of the counterfeit products, Defendants seek to further confuse the relevant public as to the source or sponsorship of their goods by Plaintiff.

49. Defendants' false designation of origin and misrepresentation of fact as to the origin and/or sponsorship of the counterfeit product to the public is a willful violation of Section 43 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125.

50. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' wrongful actions, Plaintiff has been and will continue to be deprived of substantial sales of its genuine products.

51. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law and, if Defendants' actions are not enjoined, Plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable harm to its reputation and the goodwill of its brand.

COUNT IV

VIOLATION OF ILLINOIS UNIFORM DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES ACT (815 ILCS § 510/1, et seq.)

52. Plaintiff hereby realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 51.

53. Defendants have engaged in acts violating Illinois law including, but not limited to, passing off their counterfeit product as those of Plaintiff, causing a likelihood of confusion and/or misunderstanding as to the source of their goods, causing a likelihood of confusion and/or misunderstanding as to an affiliation, connection, or association with Plaintiff's genuine and authentic [REDACTED] Products, representing that their products have Plaintiff's approval when they do not, and engaging in other conduct which creates a likelihood of confusion or misunderstanding among the public.

54. The foregoing Defendants' acts constitute a willful violation of the Illinois Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act, 815 ILCS § 510/1, et seq.

55. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law, and Defendants' conduct has caused Plaintiff to suffer damage to its reputation and goodwill. Unless enjoined by this Court, Plaintiff will suffer future irreparable harm as a direct result of Defendants' unlawful activities.

COUNT V

CIVIL CONSPIRACY

56. Plaintiff hereby realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 55.

57. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants knowingly and voluntarily entered into a scheme and agreement to engage in a combination of unlawful acts and misconduct including, without limitation, a concerted and collaborated effort to maintain the distribution, marketing, advertising, shipping, offer for sale, or sale of counterfeit products in violation of the Illinois Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act, 815 ILCS § 510, et seq.

58. The intent, purpose, and objective of the conspiracy and the underlying combination of unlawful acts and misconduct committed by the Defendants was to undermine Plaintiff and its business by unfairly competing against it as described above.

59. The Defendants each understood and accepted the foregoing scheme and agreed to do their respective part, to further accomplish the foregoing intent, purpose, and objective. Thus, by entering the conspiracy, each Defendant has deliberately, willfully, and maliciously permitted, encouraged, and/or induced all the foregoing unlawful acts and misconduct.

60. As a direct and proximate cause of the unlawful acts and misconduct undertaken by each Defendant in furtherance of the conspiracy, Plaintiff has sustained, and unless each Defendant is restrained and enjoined, will continue to sustain severe, immediate, and irreparable harm, damage, and injury for which Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants as follows:
