

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

[REDACTED]
PLAINTIFF,

THE PARTNERSHIPS IDENTIFIED ON SCHEDULE A,

DEFENDANTS.

CASE No.: 1:25-cv-11487

FILED UNDER SEAL

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, [REDACTED] (“[REDACTED] or “Plaintiff”), by its undersigned counsel, hereby complains of the Partnerships identified on Schedule A, attached hereto (collectively, “Defendants”), which at least use the online marketplace accounts identified on Schedule A (collectively, the “Defendant Internet Stores” or “Seller Aliases”), and for its Complaint hereby alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action pursuant to the provisions of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051 et seq., 15 U.S.C. § 1125, 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a)-(b), and 28 U.S.C. § 1331. This Court also has jurisdiction over the claims in this action that arise under the laws of the State of Illinois pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337(a), because the state law claims are so related to the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy and derive from a common nucleus of operative facts.

2. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants, in that Defendants conduct significant business in Illinois and in this Judicial District, and the acts and events giving rise to this lawsuit, of which Defendants stand accused, were undertaken in Illinois and within this Judicial District.

3. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, since Defendants directly target consumers in the United States, including Illinois, through the fully interactive, commercial Internet stores operating as the Defendant Internet Stores. Defendants are committing tortious acts, engaging in interstate commerce, and have wrongfully caused substantial injury in the State of Illinois.

JOINDER

4. Joinder is proper pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 19 and 20(a)(2), as the same ownership likely exists across the Defendant Internet Stores, Plaintiff's right to relief stems from the same series of transactions or occurrences, and questions of law and/or fact common to all defendants will arise in the action.

5. Plaintiff has filed, as Exhibit 2 attached hereto, its Schedule A list of Seller Aliases including the defendant store names and online marketplace accounts found to be selling counterfeit products. However, the true identities of the defendants — i.e., the individuals and/or entities operating the Seller Aliases — are not yet known.

6. In Plaintiff's experience, a significant number of Seller Aliases included in Schedule A are operated by the same individual and/or entity. It is not until the third-party marketplaces produce the registration data for these stores that the Plaintiff is able to discover the identity or identities of the individuals and/or entities operating the online marketplace accounts.

7. Given the similarities between the Defendant Internet Stores discussed infra and the likelihood that many, if not all, are operated by the same individual and/or entity, and for purposes of judicial efficiency, Plaintiff asserts that joinder of all defendants is proper at this stage as severing the case would mean that multiple stores with the same operator would be adjudicated piecemeal and/or would need to be re-joined at a later date.

INTRODUCTION

8. This action has been filed to combat the online trademark infringement and counterfeiting activity of Defendants, who trade upon Plaintiff's valuable trademark by selling and/or offering for sale unauthorized, inauthentic, infringing, and counterfeit products in connection with Plaintiff's federally registered trademark.

9. Plaintiff, [REDACTED] is the owner of the federally registered [REDACTED] Trademark, listed in the table below — a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1 (referred to as the "[REDACTED] Trademark" and "Trademark Registration").

10. In an effort to deceptively profit from the [REDACTED] Trademark, Defendants created Defendant Internet Stores, designed in look, and suggestion, to give the impression to consumers that they are legitimate websites selling products authorized by the Plaintiff through the use of the [REDACTED] Trademark, with Defendants' ultimate intention being to deceive unknowing consumers into purchasing inauthentic products (hereinafter referred to as "Counterfeit Products").

11. Plaintiff has been and continues to be irreparably damaged through consumer confusion, dilution, tarnishment, loss of control over its creative content, and loss of exclusivity of its valuable trademark as a result of Defendants' actions and is thus seeking injunctive and monetary relief.

THE DEFENDANTS

20. Defendants are individuals and/or business entities whose true identities are unknown and often concealed with unverified, incomplete, or false business names, addresses, and contact information. Upon information and belief, all Defendants reside in foreign jurisdictions.

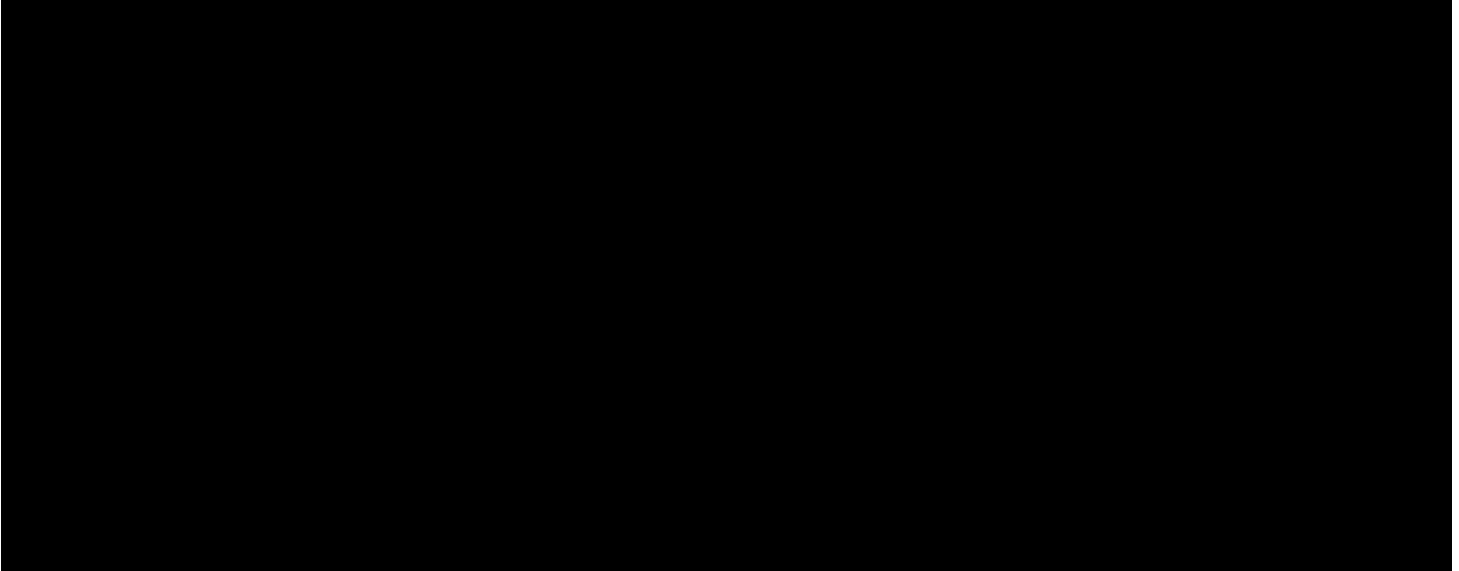

21. Defendants operate fully interactive commercial websites and online marketplace accounts utilizing, at least, the [REDACTED] marketplace platform (the “Online Marketplace”).

22. Each Defendant Internet Store is using and/or has used the [REDACTED] Trademark, without authorization to do so, in connection with offering for sale, selling, marketing, and distributing Counterfeit Products in direct competition with the Plaintiff, between at least the months of March 2025 – September 2025.

23. Defendants target the United States, including Illinois, and have offered to sell and, on information and belief, have sold and continue to sell Counterfeit Products to consumers within the United States and this Judicial District.

THE DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

24. Upon information and belief, Defendants are using the [REDACTED] Trademark without authorization in their product listing titles, product descriptions, as a keyword in the metadata of the Defendant Internet Stores, on product packaging, and on the physical products themselves, in connection with Counterfeit Products. For example:

25. Defendants' Counterfeit Products are intentionally designed to look identical or similar to genuine [REDACTED] Products. Both Plaintiff and Defendants advertise and sell their products using the [REDACTED] Trademark, in the same area and in the same manner, via the Internet, and during the same timeframe.

26. Defendants' unlawful use of the [REDACTED] Trademark, and unfair competition, is drawing would-be consumers of Plaintiff's authentic [REDACTED] Products away from Plaintiff and to the Defendant Internet Stores.

27. Defendants use the [REDACTED] Trademark as a keyword for their Counterfeit Products, so that would-be consumers will be directed to their store when searching for authentic [REDACTED] Products. For example, Defendants utilize various SEO tactics to enable their Defendant Internet Stores and Counterfeit Product listings to be at the top of search results.

28. Potential consumers purchasing [REDACTED] Products are diverse, with varying degrees of sophistication, likely to have difficulty distinguishing genuine [REDACTED] Products from Counterfeit Products.

29. Consumers who intend to purchase authentic [REDACTED] Products are purchasing the Counterfeit Products and are receiving inauthentic, low-quality, and potentially dangerous items which the consumers will associate with the Plaintiff.

30. On information and belief, counterfeiters, such as Defendants, operate numerous additional online marketplace accounts and/or e-commerce stores. As such, it is likely that Defendants may be infringing upon Plaintiff's intellectual property in ways not yet determined.

31. Internet websites like the Defendant Internet Stores are estimated to receive tens of millions of visits per year and to generate over $350 billion in annual online sales.<sup>1</sup> According to an intellectual property rights seizures statistics report issued by Homeland Security and the U.S. Customs and Border Protection, the manufacturer's suggested retail price (MSRP) of goods seized by the U.S. government in the fiscal year 2020 was over $1.3 billion.<sup>2</sup> Internet websites and e-commerce stores like the Defendant Internet Stores are also estimated to contribute to tens of thousands of lost jobs for legitimate businesses and broader economic damages such as lost tax revenue every year. Id.

32. As addressed in the New York Times and by the U.S. Dept. of Homeland Security, and as reflected in the increase of federal lawsuits filed against sellers offering for sale and selling infringing and/or counterfeit products on the above mentioned digital Online Marketplace, among others, an astronomical number of counterfeit and infringing products are offered for sale and sold on these digital marketplaces at a rampant rate.<sup>3</sup>

33. Upon information and belief, Defendants operate in an organized manner, often monitor trademark infringement litigation alert websites, utilize online chat platforms and groups, and use collective efforts in an attempt to avoid liability and intellectual property enforcement efforts.<sup>4</sup> Furthermore, there is a substantial evidentiary overlap in Defendants' behavior, conduct, and individual acts of infringement, thus constituting a collective enterprise.

34. The Defendant Internet Stores also include notable common features, including use of the same and/or similar listing titles and naming conventions, check-out methods, lack of contact information, identically or similarly priced products and volume discounts, and the use of the same text and images.

35. Defendants often conceal their identities using fictitious names and addresses to register and operate their network. For example, many Defendants' names and physical addresses used to register the Defendant Internet Stores are incomplete, contain randomly typed letters, or fail to include cities and other relevant information. Other Defendants use privacy services that conceal the owners' identity and contact information. Upon information and belief, Defendants regularly create new websites and online marketplace accounts on various platforms using the identities listed on Schedule A as well as other unknown fictitious names and addresses. These are some of the common tactics used by Defendants to conceal their identities, the full scope and interworking of their infringing operation, and to avoid being shut down.

36. Further, counterfeiters, like Defendants, typically operate multiple payment processor and merchant accounts (the "Payment Processors"), and hide behind layers of payment gateways so they can continue operation in spite of any enforcement efforts. Additionally, as financial transaction logs in previous similar cases have shown, Defendants often maintain offshore bank accounts and regularly move funds from their Payment Processor accounts to said offshore bank accounts, outside the jurisdiction of this Court.

37. Defendants, without any authorization or license, have knowingly and willfully infringed the [REDACTED] Trademark in connection with the manufacturing, advertisement, distribution, offering for sale, and sale of illegal, infringing, and counterfeit products into the United States and Illinois.

38. In committing these acts, Defendants have willfully and in bad faith, committed the following, all of which have and will continue to cause irreparable harm to the Plaintiff: infringed upon and used counterfeit versions of the [REDACTED] Trademark; created, manufactured, sold, and/or offered to sell Counterfeit Products which infringe upon the [REDACTED] Trademark; used the [REDACTED] Trademark in an unauthorized manner in order to sell, advertise, describe, mislead, and deceive consumers; engaged in unfair competition; and unfairly and unjustly profited from such activities at the expense of the Plaintiff.

39. Unless enjoined, Defendants will continue to cause irreparable harm to [REDACTED]

COUNT I
TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT AND COUNTERFEITING
(15 U.S.C. § 1114)

40. Plaintiff repleads and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1-39 as if fully set forth herein.

41. Plaintiff is the owner of the [REDACTED] Trademark, which has significant value to the Plaintiff.

42. Defendants have used the [REDACTED] Trademark without authorization in commerce and/or offered Counterfeit Products featuring the federally registered [REDACTED] Trademark in connection with the sale, offering for sale, distribution, and/or advertising of Counterfeit Products.

43. Without the authorization or consent of the Plaintiff, and with knowledge of Plaintiff's well-known ownership rights in its [REDACTED] Trademark, and with knowledge that Defendants' Counterfeit Products bear counterfeit marks, Defendants intentionally reproduced, copied, and/or colorably imitated the [REDACTED] Trademark and/or used spurious designations that are identical with, or substantially indistinguishable from, the [REDACTED] Trademark on or in connection with the manufacturing, import, export, advertising, marketing, promotion, distribution, display, offering for sale, and/or sale of Counterfeit Products.

44. Defendants have manufactured, imported, exported, advertised, marketed, promoted, distributed, displayed, offered for sale, and/or sold their Counterfeit Products to the purchasing public in direct competition with the Plaintiff and the [REDACTED] Products, in or affecting interstate commerce, and/or have acted with reckless disregard of Plaintiff's rights in and to the [REDACTED] Trademark through their participation in such activities.

45. Defendants have applied their reproductions, counterfeits, copies, and colorable imitations of the [REDACTED] Trademark to packaging, point-of-purchase materials, promotions, and/or advertisements intended to be used in commerce upon, or in connection with, the manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale, and/or selling of Defendants' Counterfeit Products, which is likely to cause confusion, mistake, and deception among the general purchasing public as to the origin of the Counterfeit Products, and is likely to deceive consumers, the public, and the trade into believing that the Counterfeit Products sold by Defendants originate from, are associated with, or are otherwise authorized by the Plaintiff, through which Defendants make substantial profits and gains to which they are not entitled in law or equity.

46. Defendants' unauthorized use of the [REDACTED] Trademark on or in connection with the Counterfeit Products was done with notice and full knowledge that such use was not authorized or licensed by the Plaintiff, and with deliberate intent to unfairly benefit from the incalculable goodwill inherent in the [REDACTED] Trademark.

47. Defendants' actions constitute willful counterfeiting of the [REDACTED] Trademark in violation of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114(1)(a)-(b), 1116(d), and 1117(b)-(c).

48. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' illegal actions alleged herein, Defendants have caused substantial monetary loss, irreparable injury, and damage to the Plaintiff, its business, its reputation, and its valuable rights in and to the [REDACTED] Trademark and the goodwill associated therewith, in an amount as yet unknown. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law for this injury, and unless immediately enjoined, Defendants will continue to cause such substantial and irreparable injury, loss, and damage to the Plaintiff and its valuable [REDACTED]

Trademark.

49. Based on Defendants' actions as alleged herein, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief, damages for the irreparable harm that the Plaintiff has sustained, and will sustain, as a result of Defendants' unlawful and infringing actions, as well as all gains, profits, and advantages obtained by Defendants as a result thereof, enhanced discretionary damages, treble damages, and/or statutory damages of up to $2,000,000 per-counterfeit mark per-type of goods sold, offered for sale, or distributed, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

COUNT II
FALSE DESIGNATION OF ORIGIN, PASSING OFF, & UNFAIR COMPETITION
(15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

50. Plaintiff repleads and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1-39 as if fully set forth herein.

51. Plaintiff, as the owner of all right, title, and interest in and to the [REDACTED] Trademark has standing to maintain an action for false designation of origin and unfair competition under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a), et seq.

52. Defendants' promotion, marketing, offering for sale, and sale of Counterfeit Products has created and continues to create a likelihood of confusion, mistake, and deception among the public as to the affiliation, connection, or association with Plaintiff.

53. By using the [REDACTED] Trademark in connection with the sale of unauthorized products, Defendants create a false designation of origin and a misleading representation of fact as to the origin and sponsorship of the unauthorized products.

54. Defendants' false designation of origin and misrepresentation of fact as to the origin and/or sponsorship of the unauthorized products to the general public is a willful violation of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125.

55. Upon information and belief, Defendants' aforementioned wrongful actions have been knowing, deliberate, willful, and intended to cause confusion, to cause mistake, and to deceive the purchasing public, with the intent to trade on the goodwill and reputation of [REDACTED] its [REDACTED] Products, and [REDACTED] Trademark.

56. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' aforementioned actions, Defendants have caused irreparable injury to [REDACTED] by depriving Plaintiff of sales of its [REDACTED] Products and by depriving [REDACTED] of the value of its [REDACTED] Trademark as commercial assets in an amount as yet unknown.

57. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law and, if Defendants' actions are not enjoined, Plaintiff will continue to suffer irreparable harm to its reputation and the goodwill of its brand.

COUNT III
VIOLATION OF ILLINOIS UNIFORM DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICES ACT
(815 ILCS § 510, et seq.)

58. Plaintiff repleads and incorporates by reference each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1-39 as if fully set forth herein.

59. Defendants have engaged in acts violating Illinois law, including, but not limited to, passing off their unauthorized products as those of Plaintiff, causing a likelihood of confusion and/or misunderstanding as to the source of Defendants' goods, thus causing a likelihood of confusion and/or misunderstanding as to an affiliation, connection, or association with genuine [REDACTED] Products, through Defendants' representation that Defendants' Counterfeit Products have Plaintiff's approval, when they do not.

60. The foregoing Defendants' acts constitute a willful violation of the Illinois Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act, 815 ILCS § 510, et seq.

61. The conduct of each Defendant is causing Plaintiff great and irreparable injury and, unless enjoined and restrained by this Court, Defendants will continue to cause Plaintiff great and irreparable injury that cannot fully be compensated or measured monetarily. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law, and Defendants' conduct has caused Plaintiff to suffer damage to its reputation and goodwill. Unless enjoined by the Court, Plaintiff will suffer future irreparable harm as a direct result of Defendants' unlawful activities.

62. Further, as a direct result of the Defendants' acts of trademark infringement, Defendants have obtained profits they would not have otherwise realized but for their infringement of Plaintiff's Trademark.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

8) Any and all other relief that this Court deems just and proper.
