

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

SEBASTIAN MARC GRAFMANN,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 1:25-cv-12669

v.

THE PARTNERSHIPS AND UNINCORPORATED
ASSOCIATIONS IDENTIFIED ON SCHEDULE “A”,

Defendants.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, SEBASTIAN MARC GRAFMANN (“Grafmann” or “Plaintiff”), by Plaintiff’s undersigned counsel, hereby complains of the Partnerships and Unincorporated Associations identified on Schedule A attached hereto (collectively, “Defendants”), and for Plaintiff’s Complaint hereby alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a)–(b), and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

2. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, and this Court may properly exercise personal jurisdiction over Defendants since each of the Defendants directly targets consumers in the United States, including Illinois, through at least the fully interactive commercial internet stores operating under the Defendant aliases and/or the online marketplace accounts identified in Schedule A attached hereto (collectively, the “Defendant Internet Stores”). Specifically, Defendants are reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores through which Illinois residents can purchase products bearing infringing versions of Plaintiff's copyrighted works. Each of the Defendants has targeted Illinois residents by operating online stores that offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, accept payment in U.S. dollars, and, on information and belief, have sold products bearing infringing versions of Plaintiff's federally registered copyrighted works to residents of Illinois. Each of the Defendants is committing tortious acts in Illinois, is engaging in interstate commerce, and has wrongfully caused Plaintiff substantial injury in the State of Illinois. Additionally, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(k)(2) confers personal jurisdiction over Defendants because the claims asserted herein arise under federal copyright law, Defendants would not be subject to jurisdiction in any state's courts of general jurisdiction, and exercising jurisdiction is consistent with the United States Constitution and laws.

INTRODUCTION

3. Plaintiff, Sebastian Marc Grafmann, is the owner of the federal copyright registrations that protect the creative content of Plaintiff's illustrations. Grafmann is an artist primarily influenced by urban art movements such as street art, graffiti, and tattoo art. Most of his work is a blend of black and white ink drawings and colorful paintings.

4. This action has been filed by Plaintiff to combat online copyright infringers who trade upon Plaintiff's reputation, goodwill, and valuable copyrights by selling and/or offering for sale products in connection with Plaintiff's illustrations. In addition, the Defendants are selling unauthorized products that are based on and derived from the copyrighted subject matter of Plaintiff's illustrations.

5. Plaintiff is the owner of United States Copyright Registration Nos. VA 2-414-555; VA 2-414-556; VA 2-414-586; and VA 2-414-687 (the "Sebastian Grafmann Works") and the registrations are attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Upon information and belief, the copyrights have effective dates that predate the Defendants' acts of copyright infringement.

6. In an effort to illegally profit from the creative content of the Sebastian Grafmann Works, Defendants have created numerous Defendant Internet Stores and designed them to appear to be selling authorized Sebastian Grafmann Products.

7. The Defendant Internet Stores share unique identifiers, such as design elements and similarities of the unauthorized products offered for sale, establishing a logical relationship between them and suggesting that Defendants' illegal operations arise out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences. Defendants attempt to avoid liability by going to great lengths to conceal both their identities and the full scope and interworking of their illegal operation. Plaintiff is forced to file this action to combat Defendants' piracy of the Sebastian Grafmann Works. Plaintiff has been and continues to be irreparably damaged through loss of control over the creative content of the valuable copyrights, reputation, goodwill, the quality, and ability to license as a result of Defendants' actions and seeks injunctive and monetary relief.

THE PLAINTIFF

8. Plaintiff, Sebastian Marc Grafmann, is the owner of the Copyright Registrations that protect the creative content of the Sebastian Grafmann Works. Grafmann is an artist primarily influenced by urban art movements such as street art, graffiti, and tattoo art. He also enjoys working with watercolors and digital techniques. As a result, most of his work is a blend of black and white ink drawings and colorful paintings. Grafmann has enjoyed creating art all his life, but he began pursuing it seriously as a business around 2016 after discovering the ease of selling art online without traditional channels like galleries or publishers. This shift gave him the freedom to create what he desired. Today, a significant selection of his works is available on various print-on-demand platforms and licensed products, including posters, art prints, clothing, home décor, and other merchandise.

9. Grafmann has expended substantial time, money, and other resources in developing, advertising, and otherwise promoting the Sebastian Grafmann Works. As a result, products associated with the Sebastian Grafmann Works are recognized and exclusively associated by consumers, the public, and the trade as products authorized by Grafmann (the “Sebastian Grafmann Products”).

Sebastian Grafmann: Between Street Art and Digital Techniques

Born in Berlin in 1982, Sebastian Grafmann is an artist captivated by urban aesthetics and the blend of traditional and digital techniques. His work is heavily influenced by street art movements, especially graffiti and tattoo art, which deeply shape his style.

Alongside, Sebastian has a fascination for watercolor and digital processing, creating a striking balance between tradition and modernity. His works boldly combine ink drawings, vibrant watercolors, and digital elements, producing a unique and impactful visual effect.

Before fully dedicating himself to art, Sebastian studied law, specializing in media law and copyright. It was during this time, while interning at an art gallery, that he found inspiration to publish and share his creations.

11. In an effort to illegally profit from the creative content of the Sebastian Grafmann Works, Defendants have created numerous Defendant Internet Stores and designed them to appear

12. Grafmann has invested substantial time, money, and effort in building up and developing consumer awareness, goodwill, and recognition in the Sebastian Grafmann Works.

13. The success of the Sebastian Grafmann Works is due in large part to Plaintiff's marketing, promotional, and distribution efforts.
