NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

HEATHER MYERS,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 1:25-cv-14611

v.

THE PARTNERSHIPS AND UNINCORPORATED
ASSOCIATIONS IDENTIFIED ON SCHEDULE “A”,

Defendants.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, HEATHER MYERS (“Myers” or “Plaintiff”), by Plaintiff’s undersigned counsel, hereby complains of the Partnerships and Unincorporated Associations identified on Schedule A attached hereto (collectively, “Defendants”), and for Plaintiff’s Complaint hereby alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a)–(b), and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

2. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, and this Court may properly exercise personal jurisdiction over Defendants since each of the Defendants directly targets consumers in the United States, including Illinois, through at least the fully interactive commercial internet stores operating under the Defendant aliases and/or the online marketplace accounts identified in Schedule A attached hereto (collectively, the “Defendant Internet Stores”). Specifically, Defendants are reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores through which Illinois residents can purchase products bearing infringing versions of Plaintiff's copyrighted works. Each of the Defendants has targeted Illinois residents by operating online stores that offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, accept payment in U.S. dollars, and, on information and belief, have sold products bearing infringing versions of Plaintiff's federally registered copyrighted works to residents of Illinois. Each of the Defendants is committing tortious acts in Illinois, is engaging in interstate commerce, and has wrongfully caused Plaintiff substantial injury in the State of Illinois. Additionally, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(k)(2) confers personal jurisdiction over Defendants because the claims asserted herein arise under federal copyright law, Defendants would not be subject to jurisdiction in any state's courts of general jurisdiction, and exercising jurisdiction is consistent with the United States Constitution and laws.

INTRODUCTION

3. Plaintiff, Heather Myers, is the owner of the federal copyright registrations that protect the creative content of Plaintiff's illustrations. Myers is a graphic artist and designer who creates vintage-inspired artwork and home décor with a modern twist.

4. This action has been filed by Plaintiff to combat online copyright infringers who trade upon Plaintiff's reputation, goodwill, and valuable copyrights by selling and/or offering for sale products in connection with Plaintiff's illustrations. In addition, the Defendants are selling unauthorized products that are based on and derived from the copyrighted subject matter of Plaintiff's illustrations.

5. Plaintiff is the owner of United States Copyright Registration Nos. VA 2-406-694; VA 2-408-376; VA 2-408-373; and VA 2-407-908 (the "Heather Myers Works") and the registrations are attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Upon information and belief, the copyrights have effective dates that predate the Defendant's acts of copyright infringement.

6. In an effort to illegally profit from the creative content of the Heather Myers Works, Defendants have created numerous Defendant Internet Stores and designed them to appear to be selling authorized Heather Myers Products.

7. The Defendant Internet Stores share unique identifiers, such as design elements and similarities of the unauthorized products offered for sale, establishing a logical relationship between them and suggesting that Defendant's illegal operations arise out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences. Defendants' activities, occurring at the same time and in the same retail space and manner as one another, blend together to create a single negative impression on consumers such that they constitute the same occurrence or series of occurrences. Defendants attempt to avoid liability by going to great lengths to conceal both their identities and the full scope and interworking of their illegal operation. Plaintiff is forced to file this action to combat Defendant's piracy of the Heather Myers Works. Plaintiff has been and continues to be irreparably damaged through loss of control over the creative content of the valuable copyrights, reputation, goodwill, the quality, and ability to license as a result of Defendant's actions and seeks injunctive and monetary relief.

THE PLAINTIFF

8. Plaintiff, Heather Myers, is the owner of the Copyright Registrations that protect the creative content of the Heather Myers Works. Myers is a graphic artist and designer who creates vintage-inspired artwork and home décor with a modern twist. Her works are inspired by the latest trends and colors in fashion and home décor. Plaintiff has licensed her art to many companies over the years including Walmart, Target, Pottery Barn, HomeGoods, TJ Maxx, Michaels, Macy's, and Kohls, among others. She currently designs for Crystal Art Gallery, Fine Art Canvas, and My Magic Carpet. Myers began her artistic pursuit at a young age under the guidance of her great-grandmother. She is mostly self-taught, although she has taken a few classes on pattern-drafting and Photoshop. Her designs have attracted a dedicated following, and she has participated in signing events at retail stores.

9. Myers has expended substantial time, money, and other resources in developing, advertising, and otherwise promoting the Heather Myers Works. As a result, products associated with the Heather Myers Works are recognized and exclusively associated by consumers, the public, and the trade as products authorized by Myers (the “Heather Myers Products”).

11. In an effort to illegally profit from the creative content of the Heather Myers Works, Defendants have created numerous Defendant Internet Stores and designed them to appear to be selling authorized Heather Myers Products. 12. Myers has invested substantial time, money, and effort in building up and developing consumer awareness, goodwill, and recognition in the Heather Myers Works.

13. The success of the Heather Myers Works is due in large part to Plaintiff's marketing, promotional, and distribution efforts.

As a result of Plaintiff's efforts, the quality of the Heather Myers Products, the promotional efforts for Plaintiff's products and designs, press and media coverage, and social media coverage, members of the public have become familiar with the Heather Myers Works and associate them exclusively with Myers.
